Regarding proposed legislation "RIN 1210 – AB32":

I do have trading accounts within my standard IRA and Roth IRA and I have studied and worked with options for many years with the goal of growing my IRA accounts. I have found that using options, both covered calls and long or short options have provided me with protection in times of market volatility, and growth in less volatile market periods. Please seriously consider leaving the IRA regulations as is regarding any restrictions on use of options within IRA's. It is difficult enough dealing with the many regulations in investing to grow my lifetime savings.

Thank you
