Hi DOL

Please do not restrict 401k or IRA accounts from trading in Options. Options are a very powerful tool for reducing risk and improving yield when an investor uses them correctly. Do not punish the smart ones because the masses choose not to educate themselves. If you must "protect" anyone, then raise standards that trading platform company's must make account owners meet before approving an account for option trading. I repeat, DO NOT prohibit option trading in IRAs and 401ks.

Sincerely,
Jim Hansen
