U.S. Dept. of Labor:

Do not pass the proposed rule (RIN 1210 – AB32) that will prohibit selling covered calls or buying puts in IRA accounts. I use these strategies for both income and to create portfolio protection (by decreasing my entry costs and therefore giving more downside "room" before triggering losses). My brokerage is well-aware that I have an IRA and, accordingly, limits my trading to prevent over-exposure to harmful risk.

Thank you,
