Subject: Hands Off My IRA

I understand the U.S. Department of Labor (DOL) has issued a proposed rule that would take away the current ability of self-directed individual investors like me to use listed-options in their IRAs. Clearly this is a misguided proposed rule change. Many conservative investors like I depend on options as part of their income-oriented risk-reducing strategy (including covered calls). Keep your hands off my IRA accounts.

Sincerely,
Curtis
