RIN 1210-AB32

It has come to my attention that this proposed new bill will restrict the trading of options in my IRA account. I have successfully traded options in my IRA for a number of years with good results. Options, when used correctly can limit risk.

I have invested the time and money to learn how to correctly trade options and to have this investor edge removed from my retirement account will definitely hurt my future retirement income. Please don't pass this bill with these onerous provisions which will hurt retirees like myself!!!!

Sincerely

Lowell Fennie
