Please note my objection to this proposed rule. I am recently retired. I have spend over 15 years educating myself about option trading and depend on my option trading in my IRA's to generate an adequeate yearly income for my wife and myself. Restricting my ability to trade options on personal funds that I have earned over my professional lifetime is unfair and an imposition on my personal freedom. I vigorously oppose implementation of this rule and request that this opinion is noted.
