I oppose this rule (RIN 1210 – AB32) and request that it not be approved. As currently proposed this rule would restrict the trading of options in IRA accounts. Selling covered calls, a form of options trading, actually provides a tool for reducing portfolio risk. I don't know who's nest you folks are trying to feather with this rule, but I strongly oppose its attempt to reduce my ability to manage my own money.

Sincerely,
Samuel J. Orr
