Hello, I would like to comment on this proposed rule. I have been trading covered calls and puts in my IRA for the last 2-3 years. I have seen investment success with no increase in risk. Before I could even attempt to do this, I had to go through quite a few hoops with my brokerage, Merrill Lynch. The proper safeguards are already in place to protect investors. This proposed rule is poorly written and the portions that prohibit options trading in IRA's should be removed.

Thank you,
