Several times per year I am required to indicate that I have read the government's warning that Options are risky. Now you want to further limit my use of them. Options are NOT risky. Stocks, mutual funds, ETFs are more risky.

It was hard enough to save for retirement, after having to pour great sums of money down the Social Security rat-hole - the worst investment I ever made. Now you do-gooders want to ruin what is left of my IRA.

I realize the great pressure you elitists are under to look like you are fighting the fat cats for us, but please, save us from any more of your protection. I can't afford it.

You have ruined savings by taking away our interest. You have ruined the stock market by pumping up bubbles in the asset values, and now you want to take away the only insurance remaining - options.

WE MUST HAVE LISTED OPTIONS IN IRAS. LEAVE THEM EXACTLY AS THEY ARE NOW. NO MORE REGULATIONS. YOUR REGULATIONS DON'T PROTECT ME, THEY JUST HURT ME.
