Subject: RIN 1210-AB32 - Please Keep Allowing Self-Directed IRAs

Hello,

My retirement is being invested by myself. I have been trading options for 30 years.

Please continue allowing a person's IRA be self-directed, if they so chooses, especially for options trading and investing. Options are much safer than stock and fund investing. Imagine the horrible carnage to a person's IRA when the market tumbles and that person cannot use options? This law, if passed, would destroy many people's retirement savings.

Please keep allowing folks to self-direct their IRAs with options, if they so choose.

Thanks,

Marc DePaul
