

From: Miles Glazner <miles.glazner@gmail.com>
Sent: Thursday, September 07, 2017 5:54 PM
To: Executive Secretariat
Subject: Fiduciary Rule

I am contacting Secretary Acosta to demand that the Department of Labor preserve the Fiduciary Rule. Banks and other financial institutions advising individuals should be required to put their clients' financial interests above their own. The financial institutions' pretexts for eliminating this Rule are transparently self-serving.