Trade and Economic Transition National Dislocated Worker Grants (DWG), with funding of up to $100 million for each award, $8 million for each individual award. This grant will enable successful applicants to address ongoing or emerging workforce and economic challenges by providing training and career services to dislocated workers seeking reentry into the workforce, and increasing their skill levels to become competitive for growing or high-demand employment opportunities.

Planned Participants Served

2,066

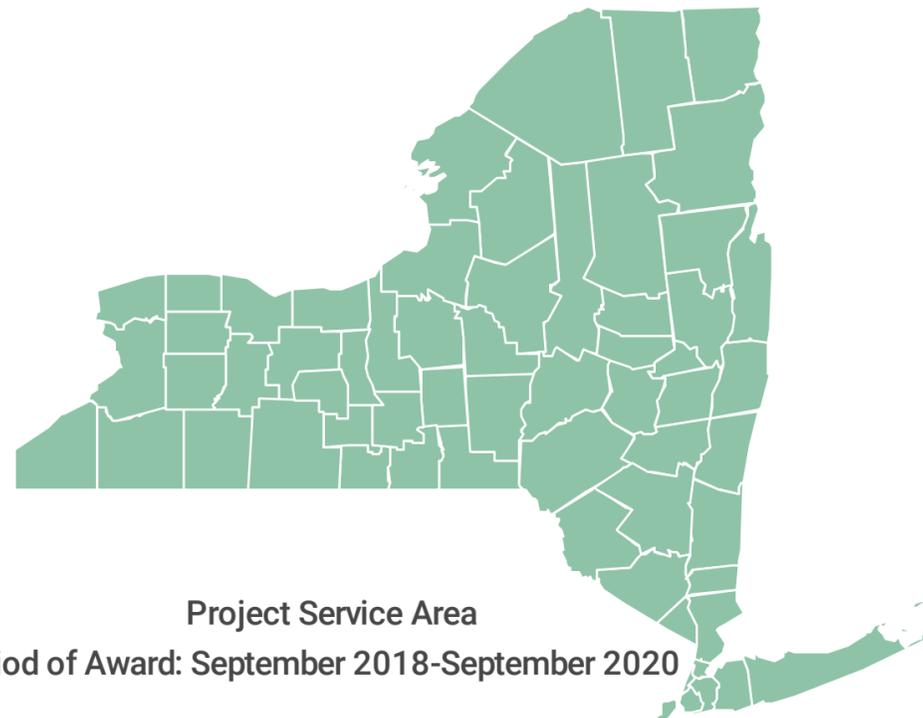

Total Award Amount

$8,000,000

Economic Transition Factors

Global economic pressures exacerbated by technological change and globalization. Over the past 25 years, these factors in our economy have increased the numbers of displaced workers in the state.

Project Service Area

Period of Award: September 2018-September 2020

Proposal Summary

Projections expect health care's share of the economy to continue to increase over the next decade. Advanced Manufacturing is also the largest multiplier of any economic sector. Retraining and assimilating dislocated workers, promotes a more vibrant community.

Sectors of Focus

- Advanced Manufacturing
- Healthcare

Proposed Outcome

NYS has one of the largest and most diverse economies in the country. Opportunities for jobs paying family sustaining wages exist throughout NYS, with sectors expanding or contracting depending on where one resides in the state.
