

Quality Jobs, Equity, Strategy, and Training (QUEST) Disaster Recovery Dislocated Worker Grant(DWG)

Alabama

QUEST ETL 02-22

Alabama Skills-Based Recovery Initiative (ASBRI)

Statewide communities

Grant Number: DW-39208-22-60-A-1

Project Overview

Participants The Alabama Skills-Based Recovery Initiative (ASBRI) include provide work readiness instruction, career planning, on-the-job training, apprenticeships, supportive services, and job placement. Program completers will be hired in positions such as machine repairers, assemblers, phlebotomists, medical secretaries, computer support specialists, construction laborers, operating engineers, billing clerks, and industrial equipment operators that offer wages of at least $15 per hour.

Project Description

The Alabama Committee on Credentialing and Career Pathways (ACCCP) models will provide transparent career path mapping to participants to help them progress through the different training and employment activities. Community and potential participant outreach activities will include actively engaging community-based organizations, including denominational churches, women's groups, immigration services, Veteran's affairs agencies and advocates, rehabilitation services, historically Black colleges and universities, non-profits serving ethnic populations, special needs organizations, business owners, and the chambers of commerce.

Period of Performance  9/26/2022 - 9/30/2024	Award Amount  $4,425,091
Planned Participants  375	Target Population  Multiple groups

Alabama Department of Commerce
 401 Adams Avenue
 Suite 670
 Montgomery, AL 36104-4313
 Tammy Wilkinson
 (334)242-5300
 tammy.wilkinson@commerce.alabama.gov

Project Industries

Manufacturing, IT, Construction, Healthcare,
 Transportation, Distribution and Logistics