

Quality Jobs, Equity, Strategy, and Training (QUEST) Disaster Recovery Dislocated Worker Grant(DWG)

California

CA Department of Employment Development

Amador, Calaveras, Colusa, Fresno, Glenn, Humboldt, Los Angeles, Madera, Mariposa, Orange, San Diego, Santa Barbara, Sutter, Tuolumne, and Yuba counties

Grant Number: DW-39209-22-60-A-6

Project Overview

Employment training activities will include services to bridge employment gaps such as job search assistance, workforce preparation, career development services, entrepreneurship training, as well as training such as work-based learning (WBL), on-the-job training (OJT), and Registered Apprenticeship Programs designed in partnership with employers, and supportive services including needs-related payments to ensure positive outcomes.

QUEST TEGL 02-22

Project Description

Strategic partnership activities will bring together industry and community leaders to collaboratively develop solutions to demand sector needs, scale career pathways, and provides coordinated services to program participants. Community and potential participant outreach activities will leverage co-located American Job Center partners representing veterans, county social service, education, and other partners representing labor unions and community-based organizations programs to reach high-need, underserved communities experiencing large concentrations of unemployed individuals.

Period of Performance  9/26/2022 - 9/30/2024	Award Amount  $13,491,103
Planned Participants  1297	Target Population  Multiple groups

CA Department of Employment Development
800 Capitol Mall
Sacramento, CA 95814-4807
Gabriela Bristow
(916)270-4566
Gabriela.Bristow@edd.ca.gov

Project Industries

Infrastructure, Care Economy, Climate and Environment, IT, Energy, Construction, Utilities, Manufacturing, Transportation, Logistics, Retail, and Tribal Government