Areas to be Served: Coshocton, Guernsey, Holmes, Morgan, Muskingum, Noble, Tuscarawas, and Washington counties.

Muskingum University

The goal of the WORC grants is to create economic prosperity and gainful employment opportunities for eligible residents in impacted ARC and DRA regions, enabling them to remain and thrive in these communities.

The project plans to provide efficient career pathways leading to gainful and sustainable employment in the health care industry in Appalachian Ohio through coordination of all regional educational and training resources. The project plans to provide an improvement of the overall health and economic well-being of a region identified as medically distressed through provision of a well-trained workforce with competencies in a variety of high demand healthcare careers and a focus in specific needs of the region.
