

TRAINING AND EMPLOYMENT NOTICE	NO. 06-22
	DATE October 6, 2022

TO: STATE WORKFORCE AGENCIES

FROM: BRENT PARTON /s/
Acting Assistant Secretary

SUBJECT: 2022 State Information Data Exchange System (SIDES) Administrative Website Webinar Series: “Moving the Integrity Needle Using SIDES Data”

1. Purpose. To announce the 2022 SIDES administrative website webinar series, “Moving the Integrity Needle Using SIDES Data” that will be hosted by the National Association of State Workforce Agencies (NASWA) from October 6, 2022, through November 17, 2022.
2. Action Requested. State Administrators are requested to share this information with appropriate staff and support participation in the webinar series.
3. Summary and Background.
 - a. Summary – This Training and Employment Notice (TEN) announces the 2022 SIDES administrative website webinar series, “Moving the Integrity Needle Using SIDES Data.” This webinar series is designed to inform state workforce agencies (SWAs) about their capabilities via the SIDES administration website reports and to share successful strategies for using the data to enhance Unemployment Insurance (UI) operations and integrity.
 - b. Background – States should view SIDES as a critical part of their UI integrity efforts and should connect to and build SIDES into their Integrity Action Plan, as noted most recently in Unemployment Insurance Program Letter (UIPL) No. 17-22. SIDES is a web-based system that allows the electronic transmission of UI claims information between UI agencies and employers.
4. Webinar Details. The Employment and Training Administration (ETA) encourages state participation in the “Moving the Integrity Needle Using SIDES Data” administrative website webinar series. This webinar series will allow SWAs and integrated partners to share the features of the SIDES administrative website and successful strategies for using the data and reports for daily operations to help improve performance metrics to support integrity objectives.

This series is open to all SWAs and integrated partners such as adjudication managers, business analysts, integrated partner reporting managers, project managers, SIDES
