Occupational Safety & Health in Construction

Keep the workplace clean and tidy for a safe working environment.

Check the scaffold whether it is safe before working. Wear body harness and ensure proper anchorage while working at height.

Check before entering underground for atmospheric hazard.

Beware of the danger zone while working near the machinery.

Prolong exposure to dust can cause respiratory problems.