FY 2009: USD 300,000

PROBLEM TO BE ADDRESSED
Child labor is prevalent in Liberia and Sierra Leone. Many children are employed in family businesses, subsistence farming, street trading, and domestic work. In both countries, children are trafficked from rural to urban areas and to diamond mining areas for purposes of sexual exploitation and forced labor. Following years of civil war, Sierra Leone and Liberia face massive infrastructure damage, teacher shortages, large numbers of youth who have missed years of schooling, and the challenge of reintegrating refugees, internally displaced persons, and former child soldiers. Causes of exploitive child labor include a lack of data on the problem; weak national institutions; and a lack of access to quality basic education and non-formal education opportunities.

RESULTS
The project withdrew 9,557 children and prevented an additional 20,333 children from child soldiering and other worst forms of child labor. In Liberia, the project targeted children from Lofa, Nimba, and Montserrado counties and in Sierra Leone, it focused on children from Freetown, Kono district, and Tongo fields.

PROJECT OBJECTIVES
To contribute to the sustainable elimination of exploitive child labor in Liberia and Sierra Leone.

Intermediate objectives included:

- Increase enrollment in educational services for children engaged in or at risk of engaging in exploitive child labor;
- Increase retention in and completion of educational services; and
- Strengthen national and local systems for monitoring and supporting education and eliminating exploitive child labor.
