

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF LABOR
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGES
Washington, DC

Issue Date: 09 October 2024

OALJ Case Number: 2025-MIS-00001

In the Matter of:

POSTPONEMENT OF CERTAIN PROCEEDINGS
BEFORE THE U.S. DEPARTMENT OF LABOR,
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGES, DUE TO HURRICANE MILTON

Administrative Order

Hurricane Milton has severely impacted the State of Florida. In consideration of the extraordinary circumstances occasioned by this natural disaster, IT IS ORDERED that:

All proceedings before the Office of Administrative Law Judges (“OALJ”), including formal hearings, oral arguments, mediations, and pre-hearing conferences, scheduled to take place in the State of Florida within the next thirty (30) days—or involving any party, attorney, or law firm located in the State of Florida—are CANCELLED and will be rescheduled. All hearing-related deadlines, such as pre-hearing exchanges, discovery and motion deadlines, post-hearing briefs and similar matters, are TOLLED thirty (30) days from the date of this Order, unless extended by further Order of this tribunal.

Any other attorneys or parties with cases pending before OALJ that may be affected by Hurricane Milton should contact the office of the presiding Administrative Law Judge (“ALJ”) directly to request rescheduling hearings or otherwise modifying existing deadlines.

Notwithstanding this Administrative Order, a presiding ALJ may, upon determining that all parties and their representatives are able to participate in a proceeding or are able to meet hearing-related deadlines, order that such proceeding will take place, or that such deadlines remain in effect.

SO ORDERED.

STEPHEN R. HENLEY
Chief Administrative Law Judge
