

LORANZO M. FLEMING

EDUCATION--MILITARY SERVICE--BAR MEMBERSHIPS

Juris Doctorate, Texas Southern University, Thurgood Marshall School of Law, Houston, Texas
Master of Applied Social Science (Public Administration), Florida A&M University, Tallahassee, Florida
Bachelor of Science (Business/Pre-law), Cameron University, Lawton, Oklahoma
United States Army and United States Army Reserve (Gulf War Veteran)
Bar Memberships: Georgia and the District of Columbia

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Administrative Law Judge (July 2016-Present) Full-time

Social Security Administration-Office of Hearings Operations, Los Angeles, California

Serves as an impartial arbiter who conducts de novo hearings and issue decisions to claimants who appeal their denial of benefits under several Social Security benefits programs including widow's benefits, disability insurance benefits and supplemental security income benefits. Also, conduct hearings concerning cessation of benefits and overpayment cases. Review medical evidence, vocational reports, question witnesses and experts during administrative hearings, issue subpoenas, propound interrogatories, and evaluate attorney fee requests.

Assistant United States Attorney-Community Outreach Coordinator (December 2012-July 2016)

Department of Justice-United States Attorney's Office, Northern District of Georgia, Atlanta, Georgia
Full-time

Prosecuted wide range of economic crimes, which included identity theft; theft of government funds; wire, mail, honest services, health care and bank fraud. As outreach coordinator served as liaison to develop and foster relationships between law enforcement and the community. Led community outreach initiatives with law enforcement partners, non-governmental organizations, educational institutions, community groups, non-profit organizations, faith-based organizations, local and state governments, and federal partners. Highlighted programs included reading and mentoring programs, youth summits, prisoner reentry symposiums, civil rights forums, violence prevention and safety programs, and National Night Out events.

Special Assistant United States Attorney (June 2008-December 2012) Full-time

Department of Justice-United States Attorney's Office, Northern District of Georgia, Atlanta, Georgia

Served as lead prosecutor of joint Social Security Administration-Department of Justice Fraud Prosecution Project. The Fraud Prosecution Project investigated and prosecuted social security fraud and related crimes to include: identity theft; theft of government funds; wire, mail, bank, health care and honest services fraud. Presented indictments to federal grand juries, managed, and litigated cases before federal magistrate courts, district courts, and the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals.

Assistant Regional Counsel (2000-2008) Full-time

Social Security Administration-Office of the General Counsel, Dallas, Texas & Atlanta, Georgia

~~Provided litigation support for the Commissioner of Social Security. Primary duties included responsive~~ brief writing supporting the Commissioner's disability determinations. Provided litigation support in a variety of general law areas including labor and personnel law matters. Represented the Social Security Administration before federal magistrate courts, district courts, appellate courts, Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, and the Merit System Protection Board.