Department of Labor Conferences over $100,000 in costs to the Department

Agency: U.S. Department of Labor, Employment and Training Administration

Conference Title: Apprenticeship Building America Convening

Conference Expenses: $120,956.83

Location: Washington, DC

Date: October 15-17, 2024

Explanation: The purpose of the in-person convening was to bring together 82 Apprenticeship Building America (ABA) grantees and offer a range of modalities, beyond existing virtual training and technical assistance offered throughout the year, to guide grantees in building and implementing workplans to meet performance outcomes. Grantees engaged in peer exchanges, built and strengthened relationships with Industry Intermediaries and Registered Apprenticeship Technical Assistance Centers of Excellence, and received expert consultations to inform their strategic action planning for grant implementation. The convening provided a deeper dive into the core components and requirements of the ABA program and applied technical assistance provided virtually throughout the year into actionable and sustainable takeaways.

Total Number of Federal Employee Participants: 25 plus grantees and contract staff.
