Any employee may express interest in this vacancy by contacting the personnel office or plant manager. The Employer shall interview all interested employees and select the most senior employee that the Employer in his sole discretion considers to be capable, provided that the selected employee has the minimum “hands on” capability for the position.

(b) All Foremen will be scheduled for work on the weekly schedule, which denotes days off and they are required to use the Kronos time cards.

Section 2.

(a) Any vacancy or job opening resulting from the reactivation of a previously eliminated job shall not be subject to the bidding procedures set forth herein whenever the employee previously performing the job is eligible for recall to active employment or is currently employed and has held the position within the last twelve (12) months.

Any employee not placed in his or her bid job within thirty (30) days of the award of the bid shall have his or her bid rights restored.

If a successful bidder fails to qualify during the first ten (10) working days on said job, he/she shall be restored to his/her former job, and the bid job shall then be awarded to the next senior bidder on the original posting, provided he/she is capable of performing the job. During the period the successful bidder is qualifying his/her former job may be temporarily filled without regard to the bidding procedure. A bidder who is awarded a job and fails to qualify shall be considered a successful bidder under Section 3 (f).

(h) Multiple bidding employees must designate their priority for their bids. In the event a multiple bidding employee has successfully bid for more than one vacancy, the final award will be made according to the priority listed by the employee. If a multiple bidding employee fails to list his/her priorities, the Employer shall assign which successful bid the employee is awarded.

(i) Whenever no bids are submitted for a job opening or whenever no employee submitting a bid is capable of performing the job, the Employer may select an employee to fill said job without regard to the provisions of this Article.
Any employee that takes a job, by any method, out of their location seniority will go to the bottom of that seniority list, but retain their full seniority on their respective location seniority list.

The entire selection procedure shall be completed in one day.

d) Employees who choose not to select a route shall be assigned by the Employer upon completion of the selection period.

e) Positions created by new business shall be posted as a bid for departmental purposes only (ie bobtail or transport). A person bidding into the department shall have their route/schedule assigned by the employer. Existing or new position vacancies in transportation between selection periods shall be assigned by the Employer.

Section 5.

When start times are changed by 2 or more hours (two days or more per week) or when scheduled work days are changed within 6 months of the employee being placed in the job, the job shall be re-bid and the employee’s bid rights restored.
