

Rapid Response: Support During Layoffs and Closures

When layoffs, closures, or downsizing are necessary, Workforce Solutions works with employers to manage the process and support affected employees.

Rapid Response services are provided at no cost and delivered in partnership with Workforce Solutions and the Texas Workforce Commission. Support is coordinated across teams to keep your operation running while employees are connected to new job opportunities and workforce services.

Why Rapid Response?

- Put a plan in place and follow it
Set timelines, handle employee communication, and structure the transition from start to finish.
- Support your business and your employees at the same time
Keep operations moving while employees are connected to jobs and workforce services.
- Work directly with Workforce Solutions staff
Staff coordinate services across teams, meet with employees on-site, and manage follow-up alongside your team.

Available Services

Workforce Solutions provides a full set of Rapid Response services:

- On-site transition services
Workforce Solutions staff meet with employees to explain options and provide job search assistance, resume support, and interview preparation.
- Job matching and referrals
Connect employees to open positions through employer networks, hiring events, and WorkInTexas.com.
- Training and re-skilling
Access programs that help employees build skills for in-demand jobs.
- Support services during transition
Connect employees to resources that help them manage the impact of job loss and prepare for their next step.

How It Works

1. Meet with Workforce Solutions staff to assess the situation and outline next steps.
2. Deliver on-site services and connect employees to available resources.
3. Continue follow-up to support employees as they transition to new employment
