

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

MARTIN J. WALSH, Secretary of Labor,
United States Department of Labor,

Petitioner,

v.

MANHATTAN HALAL GYRO KING, LLC d/b/a MANHATTAN HALAL GYRO KING, and SAMAD UDDIN aka SAMAD KHAN, as an individual,

Respondents.

:
:
:
:
:
:
:
:
:
:

Civil Action No.
2:21-cv-9104- SDW-JBC

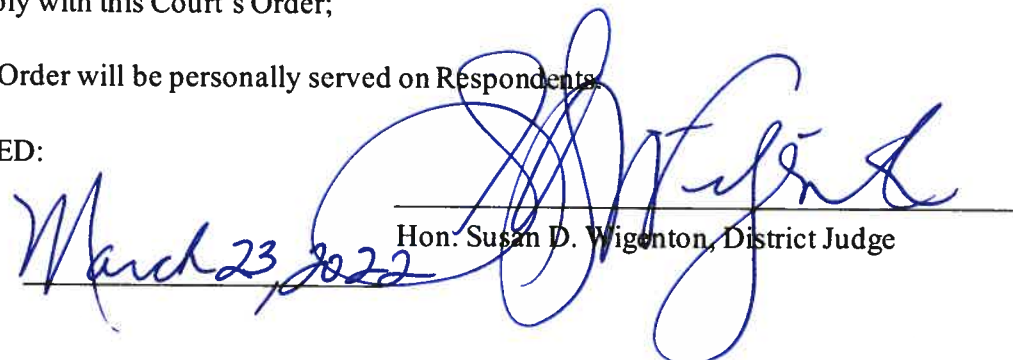

~~[PROPOSED]~~ ORDER

Upon consideration of the United States Secretary of Labor’s January 18, 2022 request for a status conference and Respondents, Manhattan Halal Gyro King, LLC dba Manhattan Halal Gyro King (“Gyro King”) and Samad Uddin aka Samad Khan (“Uddin”) failure to appear it is hereby ORDERED that:

1. Respondents are required to pay to this Court $63,000 in daily fines that have been accruing since September 14, 2021 through today’s date.
2. Respondent’s lack of compliance will result in a stricter daily penalty being imposed. Respondent shall pay a coercive fine of $1,000 per day beginning on the date of this Order until Respondents fully comply with the September 14, 2021 Order.
3. Respondents are once again directed to comply with the administrative subpoena duces tecum and ad testificandum dated December 29, 2020 within seven (7) days of the date of this Order;
4. Respondents are advised that that if they do not fully comply with this Order, additional sanctions could be imposed including being taken into custody by the Office of the United States Marshal and held in custody until Respondents fully and completely comply with this Court’s Order;
5. This Order will be personally served on Respondents.

SO ORDERED:

DATED:

Hon. Susan D. Wigenton, District Judge

March 23, 2022