CHECK STATUS

What it is...

An electronic document submission system that allows claimants (and potential claimants) to:

- Complete and electronically sign claim forms
- Complete Benefit Payment Forms
- Upload documents to an Existing Case
- Check the status of submitted documents

One of 3 ways a claimant can use to submit forms and documents:

1. Using the U.S. Mail

- Claimants have the option of mailing completed forms and documents to our Central Mail Room

2. Contacting/Visiting the nearest Resource Center

- The Resource Centers have the ability to upload documents directly to the case file and/or the case create queue

3. Energy Document Portal

- Using the Portal to submit digitally signed forms and documents to the case file and/or case create queue

What it is not...

A website that provides Claimants and Authorized Representatives access to view case information, such as recent actions, compensation information, and case file documents.

- For this access, Claimants and Authorized Representatives can register for access to the Employees' Compensation Operations & Management Portal (ECOMP)
 - Claimants – deeoic.dol.gov
 - Authorized Representatives – owcp.industrypartners.dol.gov

Background

The Energy Document Portal started in 2016 with the ability to upload documents in to a case file. Other functionality has been added over the last few years.
