The Office of Workers' Compensation Programs, Division of Energy Employees Occupational Illness Compensation (DEEOIC) invites you to a webinar discussion on Establishing Survivorship Under Part B and Part E of the Energy Employees Occupational Illness Compensation Program Act (EEOICPA).

This is your opportunity to hear from DEEOIC representatives. They will discuss the benefits available to eligible survivors under the EEOICPA and conclude with answers to your questions. You can submit questions during the webinar or in advance at DEEOIC-Outreach@dol.gov.

The presentation will cover:

- Overview of Survivorship
- Eligibility Criteria Under Part B and Part E
- Compensation Under Part B and Part E
- Multiple Survivor Award
- RECA Beneficiaries

Moderators/Presenters

- Betty Gambill, Supervisory Claims Examiner, U.S. Department of Labor, DEEOIC
- Kelly Allen, Technical Assistant, U.S. Department of Labor, DEEOIC

The Energy Employees Occupational Illness Compensation Program Act provides lump-sum compensation and medical benefits to current and former nuclear weapons workers whose illness is a result of working in the nuclear weapons industry. Survivors of qualified workers may also be entitled to benefits. Covered illnesses include radiation-induced cancer, chronic beryllium disease, beryllium sensitivity, chronic silicosis, or any illness due to exposure to toxic substances.
