The Office of Workers' Compensation Programs, Division of Energy Employees Occupational Illness Compensation (DEEOIC) invites you to a webinar discussion on District Office Roles and Responsibilities under the Energy Employees Occupational Illness Compensation Program Act (EEOICPA).

This is your opportunity to hear from DEEOIC representatives. They will discuss the various functions of the District Office in the adjudication of claims under the EEOICPA and conclude with answers to your questions. You can submit questions during the webinar or in advance at DEEOIC-Outreach@dol.gov.

The presentation will cover:

- Claims Process
- Fiscal Operations
- Medical Referrals
- Mail and File
- Technical Assistance

Moderators/Presenters

- Nicole Metcalf (Technical Assistant, Cleveland DO)
- Krista Kozlowksi (Senior Claims Examiner, Seattle DO)
- Shannon Green (Supervisory Claims Examiner, Seattle DO)

The Energy Employees Occupational Illness Compensation Program Act provides lump-sum compensation and medical benefits to current and former nuclear weapons workers whose illness is a result of working in the nuclear weapons industry. Survivors of qualified workers may also be entitled to benefits. Covered illnesses include radiation-induced cancer, chronic beryllium disease, beryllium sensitivity, chronic silicosis, or any illness due to exposure to toxic substances.
