The Office of Workers' Compensation Programs, Division of Energy Employees Occupational Illness Compensation (DEEOIC) invites you to a webinar discussion on Final Adjudication Branch Roles and Responsibilities under the Energy Employees Occupational Illness Compensation Program Act (EEOICPA).

This is your opportunity to hear from DEEOIC representatives. They will discuss the various functions of the Final Adjudication Branch in the adjudication of claims under the EEOICPA and conclude with answers to your questions. You can submit questions during the webinar or in advance at DEEOIC-Outreach@dol.gov.

The presentation will cover:

- What is the Final Adjudication Branch
- Waivers
- Objections/Hearing Requests
- Final Decisions
- Reconsideration Requests
- Reopenings

Moderators/Presenters

- Michael Johnson, Assistant Chief, FAB DC Unit
- Rhonda F. Chappelle, Assistant Chief, FAB DC Unit
- Mark Stewart, Assistant Chief, FAB Jacksonville Unit

The Energy Employees Occupational Illness Compensation Program Act provides lump-sum compensation and medical benefits to current and former nuclear weapons workers whose illness is a result of working in the nuclear weapons industry. Survivors of qualified workers may also be entitled to benefits. Covered illnesses include radiation-induced cancer, chronic beryllium disease, beryllium sensitivity, chronic silicosis, or any illness due to exposure to toxic substances.
