Employer has filed a Request to Dismiss Appeal and Remand to the District Director. Employer states that it accepts liability for this survivor's claim and does not contest claimant's entitlement to benefits. Employer also states that it has accepted liability in the corresponding miner's claim. Employer requests that this case be dismissed and remanded to the district director for the payment of benefits. In view of the above, the Board grants employer's motion, dismisses this appeal, and remands this case to the district director for payment of benefits by employer.
