Appeal of the Supplemental Decision and Order Award of Attorney's Fee of Daniel F. Solomon, Administrative Law Judge, United States Department of Labor.

Agnieszka M. Fryszman and Thomas N. Saunders (Cohen Milstein Sellers & Toll, PLLC), Washington, D.C., for claimants.

Gregory Sujack (Law Offices of Edward J. Kozel), Chicago, Illinois, for employer/carrier.

Before: DOLDER, Chief Administrative Appeals Judge, McGRANERY and BOGGS, Administrative Appeals Judges.

PER CURIAM:

Employer appeals the Supplemental Decision and Order Award of Attorney's Fee (2010-LDA-00542) of Administrative Law Judge Daniel F. Solomon rendered on a claim filed pursuant to the provisions of the Longshore and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, as amended, 33 U.S.C. §901 et seq., as extended by the Defense Base Act, 42 U.S.C. §1651 et seq. (the Act). The amount of an attorney's fee award is discretionary and will not be set aside unless shown by the challenging party to be arbitrary, capricious, an abuse of discretion or not in accordance with law. Muscella v. Sun Shipbuilding & Dry Dock Co., 12 BRBS 272 (1980).

Rafid Awad Hassan (decedent), along with eight of his co-workers, died on October 29, 2006, while in the course of his work as a translator for employer in Iraq. Employer, through its carrier, conducted an investigation into potential survivors who might be entitled to compensation under the Act. Based on employer's representations, the district director found, pursuant to Section 9 of the Act, 33 U.S.C. §909, that decedent did not leave any eligible survivors.¹ However, investigations had discovered decedent's parents (claimants) to be decedent's dependents, and despite assurances from the investigators, no compensation had been paid as of 2009, prompting claimants to file a claim for death benefits under the Act.

By Order dated May 12, 2011, the administrative law judge, inter alia: 1) denied employer's motion for summary decision; 2) granted partial summary decision for claimants, establishing the timeliness of the claim and claimants' status as decedent's dependents entitled to compensation under the Act; and 3) referred claimants' Section 31(c), 33 U.S.C. §931(c), claim to the district director for further investigation. See Order Granting Partial Summary Decision at 11. After employer withdrew its controversion of the claim, see 20 C.F.R. §702.351, the parties stipulated to decedent's average weekly wage, and the administrative law judge canceled the formal hearing and remanded the case to the district director. The administrative law judge retained jurisdiction to entertain a petition for attorney's fees.

On October 19, 2011, claimants' counsel filed with the administrative law judge a petition seeking an attorney's fee of $42,643.40, representing over 155 hours of work at hourly rates varying from $140 to $435, plus costs of $9,643.21. Employer requested several extensions of time in order to file objections but did not submit a response to the fee petition. After reducing the $140 hourly rate to $100 and denying itemized entries found to be clerical, in an Order dated March 15, 2013, the administrative law judge awarded claimants' counsel an attorney's fee, payable by employer, of $40,346.40, plus $9,643.21 in expenses, for work performed before him in this case.

In the interim between the filing of the fee petition with the administrative law judge and the issuance of the administrative law judge's fee award, the parties engaged in negotiations to settle the claims for death benefits, commutation thereof, see 33 U.S.C. §§908(i), 909(g), and claimants' counsel's attorney fee, 33 U.S.C. §928(a). The parties ultimately reached agreements and submitted applications for approval of Section 8(i), 33 U.S.C. §908(i), settlements to the district director. Under the proposed agreements, decedent's parents were to receive lump sum payments, and their attorneys would receive a fee of $29,098.65 in each case. The parties requested that the fee petition pending before the administrative law judge be dismissed as moot. Three months after the agreements were submitted, and after the administrative law judge had issued his fee award, the district director disapproved the settlement agreements because the parties had failed to provide claimants with a translated version of the settlement agreements or to obtain claimants' signatures. See 20 C.F.R. §§702.242-702.243.

On appeal, employer challenges the administrative law judge's award of an attorney's fee. Claimants respond, urging affirmance of the attorney's fee award. Employer has filed a reply brief. The issues employer raises on appeal are the same as those raised and addressed by the Board in Khudhaier v. Sallyport Global Services, BRB No. 13-0342 (Feb. 7, 2014). For the reasons stated therein, we vacate the administrative law judge's award of an attorney's fee and remand the case for further proceedings consistent with Khudhaier.

Accordingly, the administrative law judge's Supplemental Decision and Order Award of Attorney's Fee is vacated, and the case is remanded for further action consistent with this opinion.

SO ORDERED.
