HIGHLIGHTS FROM THE 2005 FORM 5500 REPORTS

Over the past three decades, as the private pension system has shifted from defined benefit (DB) plans toward 401(k) type defined contribution (DC) plans, the financing of benefits has shifted from employers to participants. In 1978, when legislation was enacted authorizing 401(k) type plans that allow employees to contribute on a pre-tax basis, 29 percent of contributions to DC plans, and only 11 percent of total contributions to all DB and DC pension plans were contributed by participants. The percent of contributions ${ }^{1}$ made by the employee to DC plans has doubled since then, but has remained steady at 60 percent for the past seven years.

Other findings from Form 5500 series reports for 2005 plan years are summarized below.

- The total number of pension plans fell for the fifth year in a row, by 0.8 percent in 2005 , to 677,677 plans. DB plans increased by 0.3 percent, while DC plans fell by 0.9 percent. The decline in DC plans was led by a 20 percent decrease in the number of money purchase plans, which follows a 30 percent decrease in 2004.
- Between 2004 and 2005, the total active participant count decreased slightly for the third straight year, from 72.7 million to 72.4 million. The number of active participants in DB plans decreased for the sixth year, by 1.3 percent in 2005. The number of active participants in DC plans decreased slightly as well to 52.1 million.

[^0]- 401(k) type plans continued to grow in 2005, with the number of plans increasing from 419,000 to 435,373. The number of active participants grew slightly from 44.4 million to 44.9 million.
- Pension plan assets increased for a third year in 2005. Total pension plan assets reached $$ 5.1$ trillion, exceeding the previous high of $$ 4.7$ trillion in 2004. DB plan assets grew by 7.0 percent to $$ 2.3$ trillion, and DC plan assets increased by 8.5 percent to $$ 2.8$ trillion. 401(k) plan assets grew 9.5 percent to a total of $$ 2.4$ trillion. Aggregate returns of defined contribution plans exceeded those of defined benefit plans for the first time in the last seven years.
- DC plan contributions grew by 8.9 percent, to $$ 248.8$ billion. DB plan contributions decreased by 1.8 percent to $$ 92.7$ billion, a slightly smaller decline than was observed in 2004. Overall, contributions to pension plans increased by 5.7 percent in 2005 to $$ 341.5$ billion.
- In 2005, pension plans disbursed $$ 354.6$ billion for payment of benefits, with $$ 136.6$ billion being disbursed from DB plans and $$ 218.0$ billion from DC plans. These payments were made either directly to retirees, beneficiaries, and terminating employees, or to insurance carriers for payment of benefits. These amounts reflect a decrease from 2004 of 2.8 percent in defined benefit plans and an increase of 13 percent in defined contribution plans.
- Overall, pensions disbursed $$ 13.1$ billion or 3.8 percent more than they received in contributions. DB plans disbursed $$ 43.9$ billion more than they collected in contributions, while DC plans disbursed $$ 30.8$ billion less than they received in contributions.

Form 5500 Research Files and Private Pension Plan Bulletins - Participants - Definition Changes

The definitions of "Total Participants" and "Active Participants" as reported in the Private Pension Plan Bulletin have changed. Previously, these definitions excluded the estimated number of participants in $401(\mathrm{k})$ plans who did not elect to receive employer contributions and non-vested, separated employees who had not yet (at the time the 5500 was completed) incurred the break in service. However, these definitions relied on information provided by Schedule T of the Form 5500, which is no longer a required schedule. As a result, the definitions have been revised.

Starting with the 2005 Research File and Private Pension Plan Bulletin, the "Total Participants" and "Active Participants" counts are reported as they appear on the Form 5500. The result of this change is that "Total Participant" and "Active Participant" counts now correspond directly to the definitions presented on pages 16 and 17 of the 2005 Instructions for Form 5500
