

U. S. DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Employees' Compensation Appeals Board

In the Matter of SHIRLEY MAHONEY and U.S. POSTAL SERVICE,
MAIN POST OFFICE, Oakland, CA

*Docket No. 02-725; Submitted on the Record;
Issued October 7, 2002*

DECISION and ORDER

Before WILLIE T.C. THOMAS, MICHAEL E. GROOM,
A. PETER KANJORSKI

The issues are: (1) whether appellant is entitled to more than a three percent impairment of the right upper extremity; (2) a four percent permanent impairment of the left upper extremity; (3) a three percent permanent impairment of the right lower extremity; and (4) a one percent impairment of the left lower extremity, for which she received a schedule award.

The Board has given careful consideration to the issues involved, the contentions of the parties on appeal and the entire case record. The Board finds that the November 8, 2001 decision of the hearing representative of the Office of Workers' Compensation Programs is in accordance with the facts and the law in this case and hereby adopts the findings and conclusions of the hearing representative.

The November 8 and June 11, 2001 decisions of the Office Workers' Compensation Programs are hereby affirmed.
