

that, after further development and review of the claim under the appropriate standards applicable to appellant's intended original claim, OWCP would issue a de novo decision on her request for additional benefits under the Federal Employees' Compensation Act.³

On October 25, 2013 the Clerk of the Board served appellant with a copy of the Director's motion to remand and cancel oral argument.

The Board has duly considered the matter and concludes that the Director's motion to remand and cancel oral argument should be granted.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT the motion to remand filed by the Director of the Office of Workers' Compensation Programs be granted. OWCP's decisions dated December 5 and November 6, 2012 are set aside and the case is remanded to OWCP for proceedings consistent with this order of the Board.
