Project Description

This project is for Mescalero Apache Tribe to purchase a snow plow. The snow plow will be used to clear the roadways and bus stops in the winter months when it snows. This is a vital piece of equipment to keep Mescalero's tribal members safe and able to utilize transportation in the winter months.

Project Benefits

Mescalero Snow Plow project is intended to fully benefit the tribal members who use public transportation. This piece of equipment allows Mescalero to keep the roads and bus stops clear which allows their members to continue their regularly scheduled days without interruption. Mescalero tribal members will be able to attend doctors visits, shopping and any other needs to ensure continuity of their quality of life .

Additional Information

None provided.

Location Description

The Mescalero Apache Tribe is located in a very rural mountainous area in South Central New Mexico. It is located in the Sacramento Mountains, within the Lincoln National Forest. The climate is generally harsh, with steep temperature drops between day and night, high winds, run off from melting snow and rain. Climate change, places considerable stress on the mountain environment and the tribal members who live there.

Project Environmental Findings

Finding: Class II(c) - Categorical Exclusions (C-List)

Class Level Description

Class II(c) consists of projects that do not have a significant environmental impact on the human or natural environment and are therefore categorically excluded from the requirement to prepare an environmental assessment or an environmental impact statement. FTA requires a sufficient project description to support a CE determination. The project may require additional documentation to comply with other environmental laws.

Categorical Exclusion Description

Type 07: Acquisition, installation, rehabilitation, replacement, and maintenance of vehicles or equipment, within or accommodated by existing facilities, that does not result in a change in functional use of the facilities, such as: equipment to be located within existing facilities and with no substantial off-site impacts; and vehicles, including buses, rail cars, trolley cars, ferry boats and people movers that can be accommodated by existing facilities or by new facilities that qualify for a categorical exclusion.
