ARTICLE 7 – GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

Section 7.1 For the purpose of the Agreement, a grievance is defined as a written statement signed by an individual employee or by the COMPANY, claiming a violation of the terms of this Agreement, including disciplinary discharge or suspension, or a difference arising between the COMPANY and an individual employee or a number of individual employees as to the interpretation or application of any of the terms of this Agreement. Nothing herein shall be construed as restricting the rights of individual employees to present complaints to the COMPANY through regular channels of the COMPANY, or the rights of the COMPANY to adjust such complaints, provided that adjustment shall not conflict with the provisions of this Agreement and that a representative of the UNION has been given the opportunity to be present at such adjustment, if requested by the employee and/or employees involved in the complaint. Grievances shall be settled promptly in the following manner, and if the time limits contained therein are not followed, the grievance shall be considered void. No waiver of such time limits shall be effective unless reduced to writing, nor shall such waiver be deemed precedent. The parties may mutually agree to expedite the procedures in the Steps below.

Disciplinary action not involving termination will begin at Step I and terminations will begin at Step II.

Step I The Local Union having any grievance shall be reduced to writing and signed by the affected employee and the steward and submitted to the Chief of Security within seven (7) days of the date of the occurrence giving rise to the grievance. Within seven (7) days from the receipt of such written grievance, the Chief of Security or his designated representative shall conduct a meeting with the aggrieved employee and the UNION's President, Vice President or Steward. The Chief of Security shall submit his answer in writing within five (5) days of such meeting to the aggrieved employee and the steward.

Step II If the matter is not resolved in Step I, the LOCAL may appeal the grievance by submitting it in writing to the office of the Project Manager within five (5) days from the receipt of the answer given by the Chief of Security. Within ten (10) days from the receipt of the UNION’S appeal, a meeting shall be held between the Project Manager and his designated representative(s), the LOCAL and or the INTERNATIONAL UNION's designated representative(s). The Project Manager shall render his decision in writing within seven days after the conclusion of such meeting. A steward and/or Local UNION Officer attending such meeting will not be docked for time lost attending such meeting.

Step III If the matter is not resolved in Step II, the Local UNION or COMPANY may request arbitration in the following matter:

a. Within twenty (20) days after Step III, the UNION or Company may request the FMCS to furnish a list of seven (7) available arbitrators.

b. Within ten (10) days after the receipt of the list of arbitrators, representatives of the UNION and the COMPANY will alternatively strike names and the last remaining name on the list shall be the arbitrator to hear the case. The first party to strike shall be determined by the toss of a coin; for any subsequent arbitration, the parties will alternate as to whom will be first to strike.

Section 7.2 The arbitrator shall have no power to add to, or subtract from, or modify any of the terms of this Agreement or to rule on any matter except while this Agreement is in full force and effect. The arbitrator’s decision shall be based exclusively on evidence presented at the arbitration hearing. The arbitrator’s decision shall demonstrate that he has thoroughly considered the arguments advanced by each party and cite the provisions of the Agreement serving as the basis for the decision. The arbitrator shall have no power to establish or change wage rates or wage scales or benefits. Either party may submit a post hearing brief. The award (decision) of the arbitrator shall be in writing and shall be final and binding upon the COMPANY, UNION, and the involved employee.

Section 7.3 Disputes, which include claims for back pay, shall be valid back to the date the incident occurred. The Arbitrator must deduct all interim earnings in making a monetary award for any claimed back wages, including unemployment compensation and the employee must demonstrate his good faith attempts to secure interim earnings. No settlement of any grievance shall be deemed a precedent or be admissible in any arbitration proceedings.
Section 7.4 The fees and expenses of the Arbitrator shall be borne equally by the COMPANY and the UNION. Each party shall bear its own expense, including any witness expense, in presenting its case to the Arbitrator. The minutes of any arbitration case may be recorded by a qualified court reporter if either party so requests. The party requesting that the minutes be recorded shall pay the cost of the recording of said reporter. If either party desires a copy of the minutes so recorded, he shall purchase such at his own expense.

Section 7.5 For the purposes of this Article, Saturdays, Sundays and holidays shall be excluded in computing periods.

Section 7.6 Neither the COMPANY nor the UNION shall be required to arbitrate more than one (1) grievance in any arbitration, except by mutual agreement.

Section 7.7 No settlement of any grievance shall be deemed a precedent or admissible in any arbitration proceeding.

Section 7.8 The time limits in this Article shall be strictly observed, and may be extended only by written agreement of the parties. On a case-by-case basis, the parties may mutually agree in writing to bypass any step or steps in the grievance procedure.

7.8.1 An employee who, during his scheduled working hours, meets with Company officials on grievance or other pertinent Union business shall be paid at his regular hourly rates for time so spent. Permission must be obtained by an employee from an appropriate supervisor or manager before leaving his, or her, post to raise a grievance or attend a meeting with Company officials.

7.8.2 By agreement of the Union and the designated Company official, a given step of the grievance procedure contemplated may be waived in writing and the grievance processed to the next higher step.

7.8.3 The parties shall, in no way, be limited as to the designation of alternates for particular steps of the procedure, as needed. The Company must use stewards, alternate stewards or Union officials, provided the Union has appointed a Steward or alternate on each shift.
7.8.4. Any grievance involving the application or interpretation of the Collective Bargaining Agreement shall commence at Step II.
ARTICLE 8 – SENIORITY

Section 8.1

a. Seniority shall mean the total length of time an employee has been employed in the bargaining unit as specified in Section 1.2, Article 1 of this Agreement, unless otherwise provided.

b. Seniority for all Dispatch Operators purposes shall mean the total length of continuous service within the bargaining unit as specified in Section 1.2, Article 1, of this Agreement, unless otherwise provided.

c. The last four (4) digits (lowest) of the affected employee's social security number will establish seniority for employees with a common hire date, except as provided elsewhere under Article 8.

a. Each newly hired employee, except employees being brought back from layoffs or reductions in force, who have already served a probationary period, shall be considered a probationary employee until he has been an employee of the COMPANY sixty (60) days after completion of all training including on the job training. While any employee is a probationary employee, he may be disciplined, suspended or discharged by the COMPANY without recourse to the Grievance Arbitration Procedure. A probationary employee is not entitled to UNION representation for disciplinary action. After the probationary period, each employee shall be considered a regular employee and shall accrue seniority from the date of his hire. The COMPANY will not violate Article 15 of this Agreement.

b. Employees selected to work in the Emergency Dispatch Center, Physical Security Specialist, Bicycle Patrol Officer, Hazmat Inspector and Vehicle Patrol Officer classification will serve a sixty (60) calendar day probationary period. The probationary period shall commence upon completion of required training and certifications. In the event an employee fails to successfully complete the training, the employee will be returned to his position at the former rate of pay with any interim increases with full seniority.

Section 8.3 Providing work is available, part-time employees must work a minimum of 32 hours during a 28-day schedule, in order to have seniority amongst part-time employees. It is understood that the total part-time employee complement shall not consist of more than twenty-five percent (25%) of the full-time bargaining unit employees. Part time employees are not meant to replace the full-time workforce. Any part-time employee who becomes a full-time employee shall, except employees being brought back from layoffs or reductions in force, who have already served a probationary period, upon completion of a probationary period of sixty (60) days, be placed on the seniority roster for full-time employees in accordance with the date he became a full-time employee.

Section 8.4. Full-time employees after completing the probationary periods who are thereafter placed on part-time work with the COMPANY will retain their full-time seniority; however, they shall accumulate full-time seniority at a 1:3 ratio they accrued as a part-time employee. For example; a full-time employee with 24 years seniority will have 8 years seniority on the part-time list and will placed accordingly on the part-time seniority list. If they later return to full-time employment, they will return to a position on the seniority roster to which their full-time seniority entitles them. Full-time employees who voluntarily request to move to part-time will be placed at the bottom of the part-time seniority list or recall list.

Section 8.5

a. In the event of a layoff or a reduction in force, or recall from layoff, bargaining unit seniority shall control, provided the senior employee is qualified to perform the available work. The employee with the least seniority shall be laid off first and recall will be in the inverse order of layoff. It is understood that probationary period employees will be laid off before employees with seniority. When this occurs bargaining unit employees will be called by most senior bargaining unit employee first, then down the seniority roster.

b. In the event of a reduction in force of any classifications in the bargaining unit, the lowest qualified person in that classification in seniority will be placed in the Security Guard Force by his seniority. Should an opening not exist within the Security Guard Force, a reduction in force will take place in the Security Guard Force to allow for placement of the officer by his seniority. The employee must be qualified for the security officer position and remain qualified or he will be laid off.

c. In the event of a layoff, the Local President, and Vice President and Chief Steward shall have super seniority to include shift, days off and will be continued at work, provided he is qualified to perform the work available. Notwithstanding the position on the seniority list.

Section 8.6 An employee who accepts a permanent supervisory position with the COMPANY shall retain the seniority he had as of the date of promotion to supervisor if such employee returns to the bargaining unit, but shall not accumulate additional seniority while employed in a supervisory capacity. This provision will apply from the implementation of this Agreement. In the event of an opening, and the employee becomes re-employed in a position covered by this Agreement, he will return to a position to which his seniority entitles him. The Assistant Chief, Chief or Program Manager will not qualify for this for seniority under this article.

a. Any supervisor returning to the bargaining unit, without a break of employment, who has served the probation in accordance with Section 8.2, will not have to serve an additional probationary period and their seniority will commence upon their first day of return to the bargaining unit.

b. Unless he/she is terminated for disciplinary reasons, an employee who has promoted to a Supervisory position, may voluntarily retreat within ninety (90) days to the previous position held prior to the job classification change as long as the previous position is within this bargaining unit provided there is a vacancy. Upon reverting to his/her former job classification, the bargaining unit employee will receive the wages and benefits he/she received prior to moving to the new job classification. Such reversion may not be appealed through the grievance/arbitration procedure.

c. Dispatch Operators and PSS Leads will be allowed to conduct such tasks within their respective classification, with the exception of entering payroll.
Section 8.7

a. A non-probationary employee who is laid off shall have callback rights for a period of eighteen (18) months.

b. It is the responsibility of the laid-off employee to keep the COMPANY advised in writing of any changes in his available mailing address, email or home and mobile phone number. The COMPANY shall be considered to have fulfilled its obligation for recall under this Section by sending notice of the job opening to the employee's last known address by certified mail. The employee shall express to the COMPANY his intent to return to work not more than seventy-two (72) hours after receipt of certified notice from the COMPANY; thereafter, the employee will have a maximum of fifteen (15) days in which to report for duty.

Section 8.8 An employee who has worked for the COMPANY for one (1) year who is unable to report for work because of a non-occupational injury or illness shall be eligible for up to twelve (12) weeks of leave in accordance with the Family & Medical Leave Act. (The COMPANY may, in its discretion, extend such leave up to one (1) year for those employees with medical certification of a serious health condition; however, the employee shall not accumulate additional seniority during the extended leave.) Employees on leave are subject to layoff in accordance with this retained seniority. The employee will give a minimum of fifteen (15) days prior notice in writing to the COMPANY when the employee is returning from such leave. Before returning, the employee will be required to meet all qualifications required for their job classification at JSC. An employee who is unable to return to work because of an occupational injury or illness and granted an extended leave shall continue to accumulate seniority during the term of the disability up to one (1) year, except that he shall be subject to layoff according to his seniority. An employee who is unable to return to work because of a non-occupational injury or illness and granted an extended leave shall maintain his or her current seniority for a period up to six months from the last day worked. The maximum period is limited to six months, which includes vacation, FMLA, and any other leaves taken simultaneously. Before returning to work from an extended leave, the employee must meet all qualifications required for the position sought at JSC, including, but not limited to, the physical agility test, firearms qualification, and any other requirements specified. The employee must be fully-qualified for the position in order to be eligible to return. Employees seeking to return from an extended leave may apply only for open positions for which they are qualified. It is understood that no other benefits will apply during the extended leave. If any employee is unable to return to work as required by this article within the time limitation provided herein, the employee will be considered discharged from employment.

Section 8.9 An employee's seniority shall be terminated upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

a. Employee is discharged for just cause;

b. Employee voluntarily quits;

c. Employee has been on layoff status in excess of the time limits provided in Section 8.7a of this Agreement;

d. Employee fails to express to the COMPANY his intent to return to work and/or does not return to work in accordance with the requirements in Section 8.7b of this Agreement;

e. Employee has been paid compensation for permanent and total disability on account of an injury or illness or has been medically determined not to be able to return to work within the maximum allowable extended leave period;

f. Employee fails to report for work for three (3) days without notifying the COMPANY within such period, except case of circumstances beyond his control.

g. In the event, the employee transfers out of the bargaining unit, except as provided in Section 8.6 above;

h. Employee falsifies the reasons for a leave of absence; and

i. The employee is permanently denied site access by NASA.

Section 8.10 The COMPANY shall prepare each month an up-to-date seniority list as needed, which shall be available to the Union and posted at appropriate locations, and the COMPANY shall furnish to the UNION a duplicate copy of such seniority list. If an employee has a question regarding his seniority date, he will advise the COMPANY in writing of what he feels is his correct seniority date. The COMPANY will check their records and if they agree or disagree with the employee's date, they will so notify the employee. If there is a disagreement, the COMPANY and the UNION will meet in an effort to resolve the issue.

Section 8.11 It is understood senior employees shall have preference of assignments to shifts and days off. An employee shall not exercise such preference more than once during any twelve (12) month period. The annual bid will begin May 1 and shall be completed by July 1 each year if ratification occurs before May 1, otherwise within 30 days of the ratification in the first year. The bid will be posted after the COMPANY meets with the UNION to proof the annual bid. This shall not preclude an employee from exercising seniority to fill an opening on another shift, or days off occurring on any shift, which may occur sooner than twelve (12) months after the exercise of his shift preference rights. Once an employee has expressed his preference for a particular shift or days off and has been notified that the transfer has been arranged, he will not be permitted to withdraw his application.

a. In the event an interim vacancy should occur while an employee is on vacation, or on a Leave of Absence of no more than one (1) week, the affected employee will advise the COMPANY in writing prior to leaving on vacation or leave that they desire to exercise their seniority in the event there is an interim vacancy while they are on vacation or leave. If such employee's seniority is sufficient to be awarded the interim vacancy, the COMPANY may temporarily fill the vacancy pending the return of the employee on vacation or leave.

b. Shift bids within a classification will be as follows; any full-time employee, who is working within the classification on a full-time basis, regardless of shifts, will have priority based upon seniority within the bargaining unit for the open bid classification. In the event the bid remains unfilled at the end of four (4) days, any qualified person outside the classification may bid on the opening based upon their seniority with the bargaining unit.

Section 8.12 Promotions to positions in the PSS will be offered first to members in the bargaining unit and shall be made on a voluntary basis based on merit with appropriate weight given to seniority (merit includes experience, testing and work record). If no bargaining unit member is eligible, or applies for the position, the position may be open to qualified candidates.

ARTICLE 26 – EMERGENCIES, ACTS OF GOD, AND CONDITIONS BEYOND THE CONTROL OF MANAGEMENT (TA)

The parties hereby mutually agree to adopt the following principles of application to the terms “Emergency,” “Acts of God,” or “Conditions Beyond the Control of Management” as used in the Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Management’s freedom to act as may possibly be expanded and managerial obligations may possibly be narrowed if an emergency, an Act of God, or a condition beyond the control of management is involved.

Common sense, and the entire pattern of American Industrial experience, makes it necessary to acknowledge that emergencies do develop as a result of factors beyond control of even the best of managements and, that a Company should not be penalized for taking steps to cope with such unforeseen developments even if it necessitates failure to observe all provisions of the Agreement. However, there are limits and standards, which must be observed:

1. Management must not be directly responsible for the emergency.

2. The emergency must involve a situation which threatens to impair operations materially.

3. The emergency must be of limited time duration.

4. Any violation, or suspension, of contractual agreements must be unavoidable and limited only to the duration of the emergency.

Nothing in the foregoing is intended to imply that a violation of the Agreement has occurred when the Agreement specifically makes allowance for exceptional actions under the conditions of an Act of God, Emergency, or Conditions Beyond the Control of Management.

ARTICLE 27 – TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

Section 27.1 Employees shall give the Company two (2) weeks’ notice of resignation in writing.

Section 27.2 Employees laid off through no fault of their own shall be granted two (2) weeks’ notice in writing, or two (2) weeks’ pay in lieu thereof. This requirement of notice set forth in (b) above shall not apply to a layoff caused by an Act of God, strike, or other circumstances beyond the control of the Company, including Government directive.
ARTICLE 28 – PART-TIME EMPLOYEES

Section 28.1 Part-time employees will be called by rotation based on number of hours worked to ensure an equitable distribution of work. Employees will be called for work assignments starting with employees with the least amount of hours worked being called first.

Section 28.2 Part-time employees shall receive a minimum of two (2) hours notification on a job assignment, except in emergencies, including unanticipated “call offs.”

Section 28.3 A part-time employee shall not work more than twenty-nine (29) hours in a workweek, except in cases beyond the Company’s control, except as provided in Article 14.11.

Section 28.6 A Part-time employee who works on a holiday shall be entitled to holiday pay. A Part time employee who does not work on a holiday shall be entitled to Holiday pay on a pro-rata basis based on the number of hours worked in the work week preceding the holiday or the actual hours worked on the holiday, whichever is greater.

Section 28.7 Part-time employees must meet all the requirements placed on all full-time employees, including time spent in training class.
