AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT is made and entered into as of the 1st day of June, 2015, by and between HOST INTERNATIONAL, INC. at McCarran International Airport, Las Vegas, Nevada (hereinafter, called the "Employer") and its successors and assigns and the LOCAL JOINT EXECUTIVE BOARD OF LAS VEGAS, for and on behalf of CULINARY WORKERS UNION, LOCAL 226, and BARTENDERS UNION, LOCAL 165 (hereinafter, called the "Union").

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the parties have, by negotiations and collective bargaining, reached complete agreement on wages, hours of work, working conditions and other related, negotiable subjects to be incorporated into a new Labor Agreement which shall supersede all previous verbal or written agreements applicable to the employees in the bargaining unit defined herein which may have existed between the Employer and the Union or between the predecessor of the Employer, if any, and the predecessor of the Union, if any.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing the execution of this Agreement and the full and faithful performance of the covenants, representations and warranties contained herein, it is mutually agreed as follows:

ARTICLE 1 - RECOGNITION AND CONTRACT COVERAGES

1.01. Recognition of the Union.
The Employer recognizes the Union as the exclusive collective bargaining representative for the Employer's retail food and beverage employees working in the Airport Division at McCarran International Airport under the Union's jurisdiction and working in those job classifications listed in Exhibit 1 attached to and made a part of this Agreement. The Employer and the Union agree that all employees working in classifications listed in that Exhibit are properly within the bargaining unit. Any classification in the Airport Division retail food and beverage units operated by the Employer at McCarran International Airport established by the Employer and not listed in Exhibit 1, where the employees perform duties covered by this Agreement, shall be a part of this Agreement at a wage rate to be negotiated between the Union and the Employer. Excluded from the bargaining unit are office clerical, confidential employees, clerical employees, maintenance employees not performing porter's work and guards, managers and supervisors as defined by the National Labor Relations Act of 1947 as amended which classifications shall perform no bargaining unit work except such occasional work as is reasonably connected with or incidental to the proper and orderly conduct of the operations they are performing.

ARTICLE 2 - HIRING OF EMPLOYEES

2.01. Hiring Procedure.
Whenever the Employer finds it necessary to hire new employees for those classifications covered by this Agreement, it may recruit and procure applicants from any source.

At its sole option, the Employer may notify the Union who shall assist the Employer in obtaining applicants who meet the qualifications required by the Employer. When applicable, the Union's selection of applicants for referral shall be on a nondiscriminatory basis, and shall not be based upon or in any way affected by membership in the Union or the Union's bylaws, rules, regulations, constitutional provisions or any other aspects or obligations of Union membership, policies, or requirements, or upon an applicant's race, color, religion, sex, age or national origin, actual or perceived disability or a history of disability.

The Employer shall be the sole judge of an applicant's suitability, competence and qualifications to perform the work of any job to be filled. The Employer may accept or reject any applicant for employment, in accordance with applicable laws.

When the Employer considers applicants for employment who have not been referred to the Employer by the Union's dispatch office, the Employer shall, in order to maintain a consistent and orderly process, advise such applicants that in order to obtain employment they must be dispatched for available positions. The Union's referral service shall send applicants named by the Employer directly back to the Employer. The Union will process these applicants within four (4) hours during which the Union's referral service is open for business. Such applicants named by the Employer shall be processed by the service without any discrimination. Any applicant named by the Employer shall be permitted by the Union's referral service to register in the same manner as others. This process shall be effective January 1, 2018 with a review of the process no later than January 1, 2019. If there are any problems with processing of applicants, the parties will review such problems and make such changes as may be necessary.

2.02. No Individual Contracts.
No employee covered by this Agreement shall be compelled or allowed to enter into any individual contract or agreement with the Employer, concerning conditions of employment which varies the terms or conditions of employment contained in the Agreement.

2.03. Hiring of Bartenders.
The Employer agrees that all Bartenders hired by the Employer shall have completed the Local 165 Joint Apprenticeship Training Program, and passed the craft exam related to that program, so long as in the Employer's sole judgment this results in a sufficient supply of best qualified candidates. Notwithstanding the above, current Bartenders, and future Bartender transfers from other Host locations with a minimum of one year experience as a Bartender, are exempt from this requirement. HMS Host will provide documentation to verify the one year experience and will post the Union Craft Card as a requirement on all job postings. The Union shall indemnify, defend and save the Employer harmless against any and all claims, demands, suits, or other forms of liability including attorney's fees, that may arise out of or by reason of action taken by the Employer in abiding by the terms of this paragraph.

ARTICLE 3 - UNION SECURITY

3.01. Check-Off.
The check-off agreement and system heretofore entered into and established by the Employer and the Union for the check-off of Union dues by voluntary authorization, as set forth in Exhibit 2, attached to and made a part of this Agreement, shall be continued in effect for the term of this Agreement.

3.02. Indemnification.
The Union will indemnify and save the Employer harmless against any and all claims, demands or other forms of liability which may arise out of, or by reason of, any action taken or not taken by the Employer, at the request of the Union, in accordance with the provisions of this article.

ARTICLE 4 - UNION REPRESENTATIVES

4.01. Union Visitation.
(a) Authorized representatives of the Union shall be permitted to visit the Employer's establishment for the purpose of communicating with employees and supervisors regarding Union business and collecting Union dues, assessments and initiation fees. Such visits shall not interfere with the conduct of the Employer's business or with the performance of work by employees during their working hours. Union representatives will be required to report to the designated office to sign in and wear identification while on the premises of the Employer.

(b) Representatives of employees benefit plans or voluntary benefit programs sponsored by the Union or Culinary Workers Union Local 226 or Bartenders Union Local 165 or of any financial institution owned by affiliates of the Union shall be permitted to visit the Employer's establishment for the purpose of educating bargaining unit employees about and enrolling them in the offerings of such plans, programs or financial institutions. Such visits may be limited by the Employer to a maximum of thirty (30) days in any calendar year which may but need not be continuous. The Union's designated representatives shall not interfere with the conduct of the Employer's business or with the performance of work by employees during their work hours. Such visits shall be scheduled with the Employer at least 30 days in advance and shall take place in such non-working, non-public areas as the Union and the Employer may mutually agree, provided that any disagreement shall be resolved by arbitration pursuant to this Agreement under a standard of reasonable accommodation of the Employer's business needs with the Union's needs to communicate to employees about available benefits.

4.02. Bulletin Boards.
The Employer will provide the Union with space on their existing bulletin board for up to two (2) 8-½" x 11" Union notices. The notices must be legitimate Las Vegas Joint Board Union business, affecting HMSHost employees. Prior to posting, the Union will provide a copy of notices to management.

4.03. Stewards
The Union may select trained Union Stewards from among the employees. Trained Union Stewards may act as Union representatives, or may assist Union representatives in proceedings under Article 18 (Grievance and Arbitration), and the discussion with the Employer's designated representative of questions or concerns regarding the Employer's work practices and procedures, provided that a designated Union official provides the Union Steward and the Employer's designated representative with specific written authorization permitting the Union Steward to engage in such activity. The Steward shall not engage in the authorized activities described above on paid work time, unless the Employer's designated representative provides specific authorization to the Union Steward. No employee shall participate in non-work meetings, discussions or other activities with the Steward while the employee is on paid work time, unless the Employer's designated representative agrees that the employee attend on paid work time. Stewards engaged in activities authorized by the Union shall comply with the obligations imposed upon authorized Union representatives by Article 4 of this Agreement.

4.04. Employee Information.
To permit the Union to properly and efficiently carry out its responsibilities, the Employer shall provide the following information to the Union:

(a) By the tenth (10^{th}) day of each month, a list of all employees hired into the bargaining unit or transferred into the bargaining unit during the preceding month, including each employee's name, social security number, address, phone number, department, job title, gender, hire date, Article 10 category, and date of birth.

(b) By the tenth (10^{th}) day of each month, a list of all bargaining unit employees terminated, placed on leave of absence or transferred out of the bargaining unit during the preceding month including each employee's name, social security number, the reason for any termination, leave of absence, or-transfer, the date(s) of any such personnel transactions, and the expected date of return for leaves of absence.

(c) The reports described in subsections (a) and (b) shall be sent to the Union by encrypted email or uploaded to the union's secured website.

(d) The Employer shall furnish the Union upon request but not more than semi-annually with a list of all employees in the bargaining unit, including each employee's name, Social Security number, department, job title, home address, phone number, and date of hire, date of birth, date of hire, gender, and ethnicity. Data regarding employee ethnicity will not be shared with any person, media or entity outside the Union and employee benefit funds. The Union agrees to sign a confidentiality form pertaining to the use of such data. This report shall be in an Excel spreadsheet or in a formatted text format like .csv, containing header information, in electronic form in any one of the following media:

1. Downloaded by the Union from the Company's FTP site;
2. Uploaded by the Company to the Union's FTP site;
3. CD ROM
4. Via e-mail transmission.

ARTICLE 5 - WAGES

5.01. Weekly Payment.
All wages of regular employees shall be paid on a bi-weekly basis; if the Employer changes to a weekly payroll, the Union shall be notified.

5.02. Gratuities.
All gratuities left by customers are the property of the employees exclusively, and no Employer or department heads not covered by this Agreement shall take any part of such gratuities or credit the same in any manner toward the payment of an employee's wages. Employees shall not be required to divide their gratuities with any person, except as provided otherwise in the Agreement. The Employer shall not post or display notices restricting gratuities.

5.03. Terminated Employees.
Employees who are discharged and/or who resign shall be paid in accordance with applicable laws.

5.04. Delinquencies.
If any Employer becomes delinquent in the payment of wages or is operating in receivership by the Board of Trade of a creditors' committee, or in the case of liquidation or bankruptcy, all salaries accrued become due and must be paid at once. In such cases the Union reserves the right at any time to demand and receive daily payment of wages to all employees, provided that by mutual agreement of the Employer and the Union such wages due may be deposited in an approved escrow.

5.05. Deductions and Donations.
(a) No employees shall be required to subscribe to any form of insurance or to make contributions or suffer any deductions from wages without written authorization of such employee, except as may be required by law.

(b) There shall be no automatic cash deductions from an employee's wages for any cash shortage until after consultation with the employee and the responsibility for the shortage has been established by the Employer; provided, however, that prior to any such deductions the employee may have the Union review the case with the Employer. When any said deduction is permitted under the preceding sentence, then, in no event shall the deduction be delayed beyond the latter of five (5) days or the next pay check due after the employee is notified of the days or the next pay check due after the employee is notified of the intent to deduct. The Employer shall notify an employee in writing immediately after its determination that a cash shortage in accordance with the preceding sentence exists unless the matter is otherwise resolved.

5.06. Superior Workperson.
The wage scales in this Agreement are minimum scales and do not prohibit the Employer from paying higher wages. It is specifically agreed that employees compensated at said higher wage rates may be returned to the scales published herein at the sole discretion of the Employer. Employees paid Superior Workmen rates shall have their wages increased by amounts of not less than the increases in the minimum wages scales as specified in Exhibit 1, attached to and made part of this Agreement, for the classifications in which they are employed, provided that the Employer is not required to pay such increases to employees earning Superior Workmen rates that already equal or exceed the applicable minimum wage scales as specified in Exhibit 1.

5.07. Combination Jobs.
When an employee works in two or more job classifications in any day, he/she shall be paid for that day at the rate of pay for the highest classification, provided that this shall not apply in cases of relief for meal and rest periods. Where an employee works in more than one job classification during his/her shift, excluding meal and rest period relief, he/she shall be paid the highest of the classification rates in which he/she works for all time worked in excess of two (2) hours in a higher-rated classification. An employee assigned to a higher paid job classification shall not be required regularly to perform the work of employees assigned to a lower paid classification; provided, however, that the above shall not prevent an employee in a higher paid classification from performing work incidental to his/her own job which has historically been done by employees in such classification, even though such work may also be performed regularly by employees in lower paid classifications.

5.08. Equal Pay.
The wage scales set forth in Exhibit 1 shall apply equally to male and female employees covered by this Agreement.

ARTICLE 6 - DISCIPLINE

6.01. Cause For Discharge.
(a) No employee, after having completed the probationary period under Section 17.01, shall be discharged except for just cause. An employee may be discharged without prior warning for dishonesty, willful misconduct, drunkenness, drinking alcohol during working hours on the job, being under the influence of an unlawful controlled substance during working hours on duty, unlawful possession of a controlled substance during working hours, or using a controlled substance at any time while on the Employer's premises, unlawful sale of a controlled substance, refusing to submit to testing for drug or alcohol usage as provided in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.01(b) of this Agreement, serious improper behavior or discourtesy toward a customer, guest, manager, or coworker, insubordination, failure to report for work without just cause, walking off the job during a shift, fighting, sleeping on the job or willful and malicious destruction of Employer's property. The above provisions relating to controlled substances will not apply to medicine lawfully prescribed for the employee using the substance by a licensed physician and used in accordance with the prescription. Prior to any discharge for any other reason, an employee must be given a written warning and reasonable opportunity to correct the deficiency. Upon the discharge of any employee for reasons other than dishonesty, the reason therefore shall be given to the employee in writing. When an employee is discharged or suspended for willful misconduct, the notice shall contain the specific conduct or offense deemed by the Employer to constitute willful misconduct. Upon request by the Union, legible copies of all documents relied upon by the Employer in making the discharge or suspension, including copies of any written complaints or reports concerning the employee, either by a customer, an outside agency, or the Employer's own employees, and copies of any relevant cash register tapes, shall be furnished to the Union within five (5) working days after such request. The names and addresses of customers who make written complaints against an employee shall be furnished to the Union on request if such are relied on by the Employer as a basis for discharge of the Employee. An employee may not be discharged solely on the basis of verbal complaints by customers. The Union shall furnish the Employer with copies of its inquiry to guests and of the guests' responses to any Union inquiry within seventy-two (72) hours of receipt. Copies of videotapes relied upon by the Employer for any suspensions or discharges shall also be provided upon request, provided the Employer has the copying capability and if the Union pays the reasonable costs for furnishing the copy.

(b) Where there is reasonable cause to believe that an employee is under the influence of alcohol or a controlled substance, the employee, after being notified of the contents of this subsection, must consent to an immediate physical examination at an independent medical facility or suffer the penalty of discharge. The Employer shall pay for the cost of the examination, and the employee shall be paid for all time required for the examination. There is an absolute presumption that an employee is under the influence of alcohol where his or her blood alcohol level meets or exceeds the legal presumption of intoxication recognized by the State of Nevada. A positive GC/MS blood test result for a controlled substance provides an absolute presumption that an employee is under the influence of the identified controlled substance. .

(c) Employees with less than three (3) years' service may be offered before, after, or at any time during the grievance process two (2) months' pay including the higher of declared or assigned tips in lieu of processing a grievance and arbitrating the discharge. In the event the employee declines this offer when made by the Employer, the Union will not arbitrate the discharge unless it objectively determines that, in its judgment, the discharge constituted a flagrant miscarriage of justice. In the event a positive determination is made, and the Union processes the discharge to arbitration, the arbitration procedure to be used, i.e., either type of expedited procedure or the regular arbitration procedure, shall be determined by the Employer notwithstanding the provisions of Section 18.03.

Warning notices issued to employees must specify the events or actions for which the warning is issued. Warning notices shall be issued to employees as soon as possible after the Employer is aware of the event or action for which the warning notice is issued and has a reasonable period of time to investigate the matter, but in any event, warning notices shall be issued to employees only at the beginning or end of a shift. Due to the Airport Authority's Mandate on security and security breaches resulting in the closure of security check point, employees having reported on time but delayed by the security breach will not lead to disciplinary action for the purpose of tardiness. Upon request by the Union, legible copies of all documents relied upon by the Employer in issuing the warning notice, including copies of any written complaints or reports concerning the employee, either by a customer, an outside agency, or by the Employer's own employees, and copies of any relevant cash register tapes shall be furnished to the Union within three (3) working days after such request. The names and addresses of customers who make written complaints against an employee shall be furnished to the Union on request if such are relied on by the Employer as a basis for the warning notice. An employee may not be issued a warning notice solely on the basis of verbal complaints by customers. Warning notices, written customer complaints, and reports of outside agencies or of the Employer's own security force concerning conduct of an employee shall become null and void one (1) year after the date of issuance and may not thereafter be used as a basis for or in support of any subsequent discharge or disciplinary action. Employees shall be required to sign all notices for the purpose of acknowledging receipt.

6.03. Time of Discharge.

No employee shall be discharged or laid off on his/her day off or while on vacation or leave of absence.

6.04. Disciplinary Suspension.

No employee shall be suspended or laid off or have his/her shift, station or days off changed for discriminatory reasons, or for disciplinary purposes unless a prior written warning has been given the employee except where the suspension is for one of the enumerated causes for discharge. All suspensions shall be for reasonable periods under the circumstances of each case. An employee may not be given a disciplinary suspension solely on the basis of verbal complaints by customers.

Suspensions shall become null and void one (1) year after the date of issuance and not thereafter be used as a basis for or in support of any subsequent discharge or disciplinary action.

6.05. Mitigation of Damages.
Any employee covered by this Agreement who is discharged by the Employer and who disputes his/her discharge was for just cause shall have an affirmative duty to mitigate any potential damages which might result to the Employer in the event the discharge involved is subject to Article 18 - Grievance and Arbitration and an arbitrator overrules the discharge. In any dispute over the amount of back pay due to an employee under an arbitration award, the arbitrator shall have no authority to award any back pay to that employee for any period of time since his/her discharge unless it is reasonable to do so taking in to account the efforts by the employee to fulfill his/her duty to mitigate damages with respect to that period of time.

ARTICLE 7 - REPORTING PAY

7.01. Reasons for Payment.
When the Employer or his/her representative orders an employee to report for work, or fails to notify an employee not to report for work as previously scheduled, for any reasons, and said employee is not allowed to work, the Employer shall pay the employee at the employee's regular rate of pay for his/her scheduled shift, provided, however, that where an employee is sent home because of airline operations beyond the Employer's control, the employee shall be paid for the hours actually worked or four (4) hours, whichever is greater.

7.02. Discharged Employees.
Employees who are discharged must be notified not later than the end of their shift, except in cases of discharge for dishonesty discovered by the Employer after the end of the shift. If this is not done and the employee reports for work on his/her next regularly scheduled shift and is not allowed to work, he/she shall be paid for the scheduled shift.

7.03. Early Shift Release.
Employees shall not be required by the Employer to leave work before the end of a scheduled shift on which the employees have commenced work; provided that this section shall not be construed to prohibit an employee, with the Employer's approval, from voluntarily leaving work early if he/she so desires and being paid only for the time actually worked on that shift.

7.04. Required Training & Communication Meetings.
The Employer may require training and communication meetings. The Employer must provide a minimum of twenty-four (24) hours' notice in order to require such attendance. All meeting time referenced above will be considered time worked. An employee who is off on a meeting day will be paid for actual hours of meeting attendance or a minimum of four (4) hours, whichever is greater.

ARTICLE 8 - DISCRIMINATION AND LIE DETECTOR TESTS

8.01. Prohibited Discrimination.
There shall be no discrimination by the Employer or the Union against any employee because of membership or non-membership in, or activity on behalf of the Union, provided that an employee's

Union activities shall not interfere with the performance of his/her work for the Employer. In accordance with applicable laws, there shall be no discrimination against any employee with respect to compensation, terms, conditions, privileges or opportunities for employment because of race, color, religion, sex, age or national origin, sexual orientation or disability as defined in the Americans with Disabilities Act. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Employer is permitted to take all actions necessary to comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act. However, any actions taken by the Employer to comply with the Americans with Disabilities act to affect reasonable accommodations will be discussed and reviewed with the Union prior to implementation.

8.02. Lie Detector Tests.
No employee shall be required directly or indirectly by the Employer to take a lie detector test.

8.03. Confessions or Statements.
If an employee requests the presence of a Union Representative or Shop Steward and none is available, he/she shall not be required or requested by the Employer to sign a confession or statement concerning the employee's alleged irregularities in the handling of money, merchandise or supplies.

ARTICLE 9 - HOURS OF WORK AND OVERTIME

9.01. Shift and Weekly Overtime.
(a) For the purposes of computing overtime only, eight (8) hours shall constitute a full shift based on a five-day (5-day) workweek; ten (10) hours shall constitute a full shift, based on a four-day (4-day) workweek; and six (6) hours shall constitute a short shift. Overtime shall be paid at the rate of time and one-half the straight-time hourly rate for the following. See section (c) below for exceptions regarding scheduled ten-hour shifts.

1. For employees assigned to a schedule of full or short shifts, all hours worked in excess of eight (8) in any workday.

2. All hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours in any workweek.

3. All hours worked on the sixth (6^{th}) consecutive day worked.

(b) Overtime shall be paid at the rate of two and one-half times the straight time hourly rate for all hours worked on the seventh (7^{th}) consecutive day worked.

(c) Ten Hour Shifts. Ten (10) hour shifts may be scheduled for employees in all classifications. All work performed in excess of ten (10) hours in a workday shall be paid at the rate of time and one-half (1-½X). The Employer shall have the right to establish a Steady Extra Board consisting of steady extra employees.

The number of steady extra employees who may be carried on the Employer's Steady Extra Board shall not exceed (1) or twenty-five percent (25%) of all non-tipped classifications, whichever is greater, or one (1) or twenty-five percent (25%) of all tipped classifications, whichever is greater. In addition to the provisions of Article 6, an employee on the Steady Extra Board may be terminated without recourse to Article 17 because the employee fails, refuses, or is unavailable to work more than twenty-five percent (25%) of the shifts made available to him/her in any sixty (60) day period, except that this termination provision shall not apply if fewer than twelve (12) shifts have been made available to the employee during that period..

(b) Steady Extras will be offered (after regular employees bid in accordance with their seniority) every relief and regular opening in their classification in order of their steady extra classification seniority. If the request is for less than five (5) days, the employee must request their vacation seven (7) days prior to their vacation period and the employer will respond within seven (7) days. If an employee does not so request his/her vacation, the Employer may assign the vacation for a period within three (3) months of the employee's anniversary date of employment. Under such circumstances, the employee shall be given at least thirty (30) days' advance notice by the Employer of the vacation period. Subject the above provision of this Section, preference for vacation periods shall be based on the seniority of the employees entitled to vacation periods, provided that the Employer shall have the right to schedule vacations of employees requesting the same vacation period so as to not interfere with the efficient operations of the facility. Employees may request vacation time in increments of one (1) day at a time.

11.02. Break In Employment.
A change in ownership of the Employer shall not break an employee's continuity of service for the purpose of vacation eligibility. Time absent from work while on authorized leave of absence shall not break an employee's continuity of service, but except for leave due to industrial illness

After an employee has at least one (1) year of continuous service with an Employer, he/she shall be entitled to prorated vacation pay upon termination of employment. For an employee having at least one (1), but less than five (5), years of continuous service at the time of termination, the prorated amount of vacation pay shall be one-sixth (1/6) of a week's vacation pay for each one (1) month of service since his/her last previous anniversary date of employment. For an employee having at least five (5), but less than eleven (11), years of continuous service at the time of termination, the prorated amount of vacation shall be one-fourth (1/4) of a week's vacation pay for each one (1) month of service since his/her last previous anniversary date of employment. For an employee having twelve (12) or more years of continuous service at the time of termination, the prorated amount of vacation pay shall be one-third (1/3) of a week's vacation pay for each one (1) month of service since his/her last previous anniversary date of employment.

In the event that there is a staffing problem for the Martin Luther King holiday, the Union agrees to meet in advance with the Employer to resolve same, provided the Employer retains the ultimate right to set limits for each outlet on any given day.

ARTICLE 13 - LEAVES OF ABSENCE

13.01. Reasons for Leaves of Absence.

(a) Leaves of absence without pay for a bona fide illness or injury compensable under the EICON shall be granted for the period of time that a treating physician certifies that the employee is unable to perform his/her regular job duties.

(b) Leaves of absence without pay for a bona fide medical condition or serious health conditions not compensable under the EICON shall be granted for periods not to exceed six (6) months total during any twelve (12) month period except that an employee on a leave of absence under this subsection because of pregnancy related medical condition may supplement the six (6) month leave provided here with a borrowing of part of the leave to which the employee would become entitled under subsection 13.01(d) after birth of an employee's child.

(c) Leaves of absence without pay shall also be granted for reasonable periods for death or serious health condition in the employee's immediate family (spouse, child, parent, grandparent, brother or sister). As soon as possible, the employee shall provide, upon request, all proof or information available as to the need for such leave.

(d) Leaves of absence without pay for a period of up to twelve (12) months shall be granted for the birth and caring of employee's children or for the placement of a child with employee for adoption or foster care. Eligibility for the leave ends one (1) year after the date of birth or placement of the child; or if the employee has borrowed leave pursuant to 13.01(b) for pregnancy-related disability, leave under this subsection shall be shortened by the same amount of time borrowed. An employee must present proof of the child's birth, adoption or foster care to be eligible for such leave.

(e) Leaves of absence without pay or benefits shall be granted to up to four (4) employees for the purpose of accepting employment with the Union, provided that 1) the leave may not exceed one (1) year without the mutual agreement of the Employer, the Union and the employee; 2) only one employee from each classification of HMS Host may take such leave at any time; 3) the employee on Union employment leave shall not return or be assigned to any property owned and/or operated by his/her Employer for the purpose of engaging in Union business; and 4) while his/her seniority with the Employer will continue to accrue while on this leave, it shall not accrue for vacation entitlement purposes.

(f) Leaves of absence may be granted by the Employer for other reasons and for periods mutually agreed upon between the Employer and the employee.

(g) Leaves of absence shall be requested and granted in writing and a copy forwarded to the Union; provided, however, that no employee shall lose any rights as provided in this Section by reason of the Employer's failure to grant a written leave of absence.

(h) Upon return of an employee from an indefinite leave of absence, including a leave under subsection (e), the employee shall be returned to his/her regular job classification, shift and station (or station rotation) within five (5) days after the employee notifies the Employer that he/she is available to return to work. An employee returning to work from a leave of absence for a definite, fixed period shall be returned to his/her regular job classification, shift and station (or station rotation) on the day he/she is to return.

(i) The Employer shall continue to make contributions for up to twelve (12) weeks in any one twelve (12) month period to the Health and Welfare Fund for an employee who is on leave of absence because of a serious health condition, or to care for a spouse, child or parent who has a serious health condition, or for the birth or caring of a child or the placement of a child with employee for adoption or foster care, provided the employee is or has been eligible to receive benefits from the Health & Welfare Plan by virtue of contributions made by the Employer or because the employee was already eligible when hired by the Employer. The twelve (12) week period will begin with the date the leave of absence begins. The contributions required under this provision shall be made at the minimum level necessary under the Health and Welfare Plan to maintain existing benefits under the Plan.

(j) Leaves of absence shall not be granted for the purpose of taking outside employment, with the exception of Section 13.01(e). Any employee on leave of absence who engages in new outside employment or expands the scope of current outside employment or actively works at current outside employment in conflict with his/her disability shall have his/her employment with the Employer terminated immediately.

13.02. Leaves Due to Industrial Illness or Injury.

An employee granted a leave of absence as a result of an industrial injury or illness shall be returned to work on the same shift and station (or station rotation) in the employee's regular job classification, without loss of seniority, upon written certification by the treating physician that the employee is able to perform such work.

An employee absent five (5) or more days due to his or her own serious health condition, whether or not compensable under the terms of the EICON shall, upon request, present a release from his/her treating physician stating that the employee is physically able to perform the duties of his/her former position. However, if the absence exceeded twenty (20) days, the Employer may also promptly require the employee to be examined by a health care provider (within the meaning of the Family and Medical Leave Act {FMLA}) selected by the Employer, other than the one employed by or regularly retained by the Employer. Such examination shall be paid for by the Employer. If there is a dispute or conflict between the employee's treating health care provider and the health care provider selected by the Employer as to the physical ability of the employee to return to work and perform the duties of his/her former position, the dispute or conflict shall be resolved by a third medical opinion by a health care provider agreed upon by the employee's and Employer's health care providers. Employees absent due to illness or injury shall advise their Employer as to their expected date of return to work, and of any changes therein, but shall not be required to call or advise their Employer daily.

13.04. Relationship to Family and Medical Leave Act.

Where this Article provides rights greater than those provided for under FMLA, this Article governs. Where FMLA provides rights greater than those provided in this Article, FMLA governs. The rights provided in this Article shall not be added to those provided by FMLA to produce greater rights than an employee would have under either this Article or FMLA standing alone; there shall be no duplication of rights. Where FMLA governs instead of this Article, all of the requirements for a leave under FMLA must be met by the employee. Where this Article governs, only the requirements set forth in this Article, and not those in FMLA, must be met by the employee.

13.05. Light Duty.

The Employer reserves the right to assign employees to work in light duty in classifications that are covered and excluded from the terms of this Agreement, during the time that an employee's bona fide illness or injury compensable under the Nevada State Industrial Insurance Act precludes him/her from performing the duties of his/her classification. The employee shall be paid either the temporary total disability rate mandated by the EICON while assigned to light duty excluded from this Agreement, or the appropriate rate for the classification if the employee is assigned to perform bargaining unit work, unless the appropriate rate for the classification is less than the temporary total disability rate mandated by the EICON, in which case the temporary total disability rate will apply. The Employer shall assign the employee to work the shift and hours consistent with the needs of the business and availability of light duty work, and without regard to restrictions upon a weekly guarantee. In any event, employees assigned light duty work shall be paid at least the temporary total disability rate required by Nevada Law. Time spent working light duty shall not count as shifts worked for completion of the probationary period. However, the employee's shifts worked, prior to and after assignment to light duty, shall be combined to complete the probationary period. Time spent working light duty shall not be considered a break in service when calculating seniority or vacation entitlement.

If the bargaining unit employee rejects the assignment to perform light duty work, whether within or outside of the bargaining unit, the employee shall be subject to disqualification of benefits under the EICON. However, if the bargaining unit employee rejects the assignment to perform light duty work, the bargaining unit employee shall not otherwise be subject to discipline and shall continue to be entitled to leave for which the employee is eligible under 13.01(a).

In the event a bargaining unit employee is assigned and accepts light duty work within the bargaining unit, all applicable provisions of the Collective Bargaining Agreement, subject to the modifications and restrictions set forth herein, shall apply to such employee, including accrual of seniority, and grievance and arbitration. In addition, the employee shall comply with all Company, House, and Departmental rules to the extent required under Section 20.04.

In the event a bargaining unit employee is assigned and accepts out-of-bargaining unit light duty work, the Employer shall make contributions on behalf of the employee pursuant to Articles 22 and 23 of this Agreement. In the event of a termination, the employee shall be entitled to all rights in accordance with Articles 6 and 18 of the Collective Bargaining Agreement except in the event of an arbitration, the arbitrator's power shall be limited to restoring the employee to their pre-injury bargaining unit position. No other provisions of the collective bargaining agreement shall apply to employees working in out-of-unit light duty positions. The employees shall comply with all Company, House and Departmental rules.

Employees shall be prohibited from receiving double benefits or recovery, pursuant to the terms of this Agreement and an action or decision by the EICON, Nevada Department of Administration, or any other local, state, or federal department, agency or court.

Employees working six (6) hour shifts shall receive an uninterrupted meal/break period of thirty (30) minutes on the Employer's time. Rest areas shall be maintained in a clean condition. The Employer shall provide in convenient areas for each department a record sheet for employees to sign when they leave for and return from their break periods. It shall be the employees' responsibility to sign such sheets, which shall be kept by the Employer for thirty (30) days. The Employer shall allow each employee referred to in Section 14.02 an uninterrupted meal period up to thirty (30) minutes on the Employer's time, plus sufficient time (not to exceed five (5) minutes each way) to go to and from the eating area.

16.03. Notice by Employee.
If an employee is unable to report for work, he/she shall notify or cause notice to be given to the department head, shift supervisor or other designated Employer representative who will be available for such purpose, at least four (4) hours prior to commencement of the employee's shift, except where it is unreasonable under the circumstances for the employee to give such notice. When an employee notifies the Employer that he/she is available to return to work from an absence due to illness or injury of not more than five (5) days, he/she shall be returned to work on his/her next regularly scheduled shift commencing on his/her next scheduled workday after the day on which he/she notifies the Employer, provided that such notice has been received by the Employer no later than two hours prior to the time the employee's last regularly scheduled shift would have ended.

16.04. Parking.
To the extent the Airport Authority makes parking available, in accordance with past practice, the Employer shall continue to select on premises or reasonably adjacent parking space for employees without charge. A night parking space shall be well lighted and regularly patrolled by security officers.

16.05. Work Record.
All employees shall swipe their Micros cards at the designated Micros station for their work location for that shift to punch in prior to the commencement of any work and to punch out after work. Time card records will be made available to the Union on any grievance concerning a violation of this section.

16.06. Bartenders and Bar Persons.
Bartenders and Cocktail Servers shall not be required to do general porter work. Bartenders may accept payments for food checks, present checks for food, and serve food to patrons seated at the bar or in bar operations. In the event the Company wishes to expand the provisions of this Article, the Union shall discuss with the Employer all aspects of the possible effects upon Employees working in these areas. Any unresolved disputes arising from the expansion or interpretation of this Article shall be subject to the Grievance and Arbitration provisions of Article 18.

16.07. Union Buttons.
Union buttons may be worn on the job at all times. There shall be no duplication of buttons. Buttons must be authorized by the Union, buttons must not be patently offensive.

16.08. Rotation of Stations.
Except for restaurant areas reserved for executives, stations for qualified Food Servers shall be rotated equitably on a daily basis, provided that the Employer shall not rotate Food Servers from a counter area to table area, or vice versa, or from room to room. Stations for Cocktail Servers shall be rotated daily within a room on an equitable basis. The rotation schedule shall be posted with, or as part of, the work schedule required to be posted under Section 9.06.

ARTICLE 17 - SENIORITY

17.01. Probationary Period.
All employees will be considered as probationary employees until they have completed fifty (50) shifts of work after their most recent date of hire by the Employer. A probationary employee may be terminated at the discretion of the Employer, and such termination shall not be subject to the grievance and arbitration provisions of Article 18. The above probationary period may be extended by mutual agreement of the Employer and the Union. An employee in probation with the Employer shall not be eligible for promotions nor preference for bidding.

17.02. Definition of Seniority.
(a) House seniority is an employee's length of continuous service in years, months an days from the employees most recent date of hire into the bargaining unit as a regular or steady extra employee by the Employer.

(b) Classification seniority is an employee's length of continuous service in years, months and days from the employee's most recent date of hire into or transfer into his/her present classification on a full-time basis.

(c) In the administration of this Agreement, each of the classifications listed in Exhibit 1 is a separate and distinct classification.

17.03. Layoffs and Recalls.

(a) In the event of layoffs due to a reduction in force, probationary employees within the affected classification(s) will be the first to be laid off. Employees will be laid off from and recalled to their regular job classifications in accordance with their house seniority, provided they have the qualifications to perform satisfactorily the work available in their regular job classification. It is the responsibility of the employee to advise the Employer of a change in either address or telephone number. In accordance with their seniority, employees in layoff status will be offered, but not required to perform (subject to subparagraph {c}), all extra work in their classifications before extra employees are hired, before steady extra employees are offered such work, and to the extent practical, before regular employees are assigned to work their sixth (6^{th}) day; provided, however, that such employees who are offered and accept extra work shall be paid as extra employees for such work in accordance with Section 10.05, but shall not be covered by the provisions of Section 9.03.

(b) In the event of a layoff because of circumstances affecting only a portion of the establishment, the affected employees may be laid off without regard to house seniority, provided the layoff is scheduled to be seven (7) days or less.

(c) Employees to be laid off in accordance with Section 17.03(a) may be laid off without regard to their respective house seniority as each completes his/her current workweek. At the time of layoff, the employee shall state availability or nonavailability for extra work; where the employee indicates availability, the employee shall not be called for extra work after he/she refuses two (2) out of seven (7) offers. Notwithstanding the foregoing, an employee may declare unavailability for extra work for a definite period while on layoff.

17.04. Promotions and Preference for Shifts.

(a) When the Employer promotes an employee to another classification, the Employer will consider the employee's seniority, qualifications to perform satisfactorily the work in the other classification and prior performance. However, for the purpose of looking at prior performance, documented verbal coaching/counseling will not prohibit an employee from being considered in a promotional bid. Where skills and/or qualifications to perform the work in the other classification are relatively equal among employees, the senior employee shall be the one promoted. Any employee before being promoted to the classification of Bartender, must have passed the craft examination for Bartenders conducted by the Union. For purposes of this paragraph a "promotion" shall be deemed to be a transfer to another classification in which the transferred employee has an opportunity for increased compensation or for subsequent job progression as a result of the transfer. Any permanent vacancy that is not filled pursuant to 17.04(b), and which would constitute a "promotion" compared to another bargaining unit classification, shall be filled in accordance with this Section, provided there is a qualified bidder. Permanent vacancies to be filled by promotion under this paragraph shall be posted for ninety-six (96) hours at a central location in Human Resources, with copies of each shift being posted in a predesignated location in each terminal for notification purposes only. In order for any employee to be considered for a posted shift, they will be required to sign the original bid sheet posted in Human Resources. The Employer may fill the vacancy temporarily during the posting period. An employee promoted under this Section who cannot perform satisfactorily the work of the job to which promoted shall be transferred back to his or her former job, shift and station within thirty (30) shifts worked after the date of the promotion.

(b) When there is a permanent vacancy, or a temporary vacancy of at least ninety (90) days, on a particular shift or station, employees in the same job classification on other shifts or stations who desire to transfer to the vacancy will be transferred on the basis of their seniority, provided that the senior employee desiring transfer is qualified to perform satisfactorily the work on the shift and/or station applied for and that a qualified employee is available to replace the employee desiring to transfer. When an employee signs a classification shift bid and is awarded the shift after 7 days or sooner from when the shift is taken down, the employee who was awarded the shift will not be allowed to change his/her mind whether or not to accept the shift. The Employer shall transfer the employee to the vacancy as soon as possible but not to exceed 30 days. An employee transferred under this section shall not be eligible for another such transfer for six (6) months, except when an employee is displaced beyond the employer's control (i.e. DOA, airlines, construction). An employee transferred under this Section who cannot perform satisfactorily the work on the shift or station to which transferred shall be transferred back to his/her former shift and/or station within thirty (30) working days from the date of transfer. Only the first three vacancies created by a transfer under this Section shall be filled by the next senior qualified employee(s) from another shift and/or station who desires to work on the shift or station where the vacancy exists.

(c) The Employer and the Union hereby explicitly adopt the "60% rule" in application of Article 17. Under this rule, an employee's shift or station is deemed so changed as to be a new, vacant position when the shift or station is less than sixty percent (60%) of what it was before the change. Conversely, if the shift or station remains at least sixty percent (60%) of what it was before the change, the incumbent employee keeps the shift or station despite the change, and there is no bidding.

The Employer and the Union further explicitly agree that the 60% rule applies to changes from eight (8) hour to ten (10) hour shifts. Where, after the change, the shift is still at least sixty percent (60%) of what it was before the change, the incumbent employee who had the 8 hour shift is entitled to the new, ten (10) hour shift. If the new, ten (10) hour shift is less than sixty percent (60%) of the previous eight (8) hour shift, then it is considered to be new, vacant and subject to bid.

The "60% rule" will consider the workweek to be comprised of shifts that fall into three categories: "days", "swing", or "grave". If shift changes retain 60% of an employee's shifts in their respective "day," "swing," or grave" designation, the incumbent employee keeps the shift or station despite the change, and there is no bidding. If shift changes retain less than 60% of the employee's shifts designation as existed prior to the changes, then it is subject to bid. For purposes of applying the 60% rule, shifts under this paragraph shall be define as follows:

Day
Culinary:	Any shift starting at or after 4:00 am
Bartender:	Any shift starting at or after 8:00 am
Swing:
Culinary:	Any shift starting at or after 1:00 pm
Bartender:	Any shift starting at or after 4:00 pm
Grave:
Culinary:	Any shift starting at or after 9:45 pm
Bartender:	Any shift starting at or after 12:00 am

17.05. Break in Continuous Service and Seniority.
An employee's continuous service, seniority and status as an employee will be broken when:

(a) The employee quits.

(c) The employee is absent exceeding the period of an authorized leave of absence, or is gainfully employed elsewhere during the leave.

(d) The employee is absent, due to injury or illness sustained during the course of employment, exceeding the period for which statutory, temporary, total disability payments are payable under the State Industrial Insurance System, provided, that the employee shall have one (1) week after his/her written release from the State Industrial Insurance System in which to return to work.

(e) The employee is absent because of layoff exceeding six (6) months if he/she had less than six (6) months of active employment when the layoff began, or absent because of layoff exceeding twelve (12) months if he/she had six (6) or more months of active employment.

(f) The employee is absent exceeding six (6) months because of illness or injury not compensable under the State Industrial Insurance System if he/she had less than six (6) months of active employment when the absence began, or is absent exceeding twelve (12) months because of such illness or injury if he/she had six (6) months or more months of active employment when the absence began.

An employee who is to be recalled to work by the Employer under Section 17.03 shall be notified to return to work by the Employer advising the employee by telephone, certified mail return receipt requested or other available means of communication of the date and time the employee is to report, and by confirming such communication by certified mail, return receipt requested to the employee's current address of record on file with the Employer. A copy of the confirmation letter shall be sent to the Union. Reasonable advance notice must be given an employee being recalled. If such employee fails to report to work within forty-eight (48) hours after the time specified for the employee to report, his/her seniority and continuous service shall be terminated, and the Employer shall be free to hire a replacement in accordance with Article 2 of this Agreement.

17.07. Transfers Into Bargaining Unit.
Employees outside the bargaining unit may be transferred into classifications covered by this Agreement, as long as the date of their house seniority will be the effective date of the transfer into the bargaining unit.

ARTICLE 18 - GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION

18.01. Grievance Definition.
For purposes of this Agreement, a grievance is a dispute or difference of opinion between the Union and the Employer involving the meaning, interpretation, application to employees covered by this Agreement, or alleged violation of any provision of this Agreement. As used in this Article, the term "workdays" means the days Monday through Friday, inclusive, but excluding any holiday set forth in Section 12.01.

18.02. Step One Process and Time Limit for Filing Grievance.
(a) Step One Process.
The Employer and the Union agree to implement a Step One Process for complaints and disputes related to individual disputes raised by an employee. The Step One Process gives responsibility to employees, union shop stewards and front line management to resolve workplace problems directly, quickly and cooperatively. The Step One Process is designed to reduce the level of formalism in the grievance procedure.

Under the Step One Process, an employee with a complaint or dispute shall use his or her best efforts to, within five (5) calendar days of the incident or circumstances giving rise to the dispute, or within five (5) calendar days of the time the employee reasonably could have acquired knowledge of the event, present the matter to his/her immediate supervisor. An employee has the right to request the involvement of the shop steward in this Step One Process. It shall be the responsibility of the employee to secure the presence of a union steward if he/she wishes to have the steward present during the discussion with the employee's immediate supervisor.

The supervisor involved in the Step One discussion shall use his/her best efforts to respond to the employee within five (5) calendar days of such discussion. Such response may be in the form of a proposed resolution of the matter or may be a communication to the employee scheduling a meeting to further discuss the matter.

Settlements reached during the Step One Process shall be considered non-precedent setting, unless the Employer and the Union expressly agree that the settlement shall be reduced to writing and may be used as precedent in the future. However, the Parties agree that if a resolution is reached during the Step One process, documentation of the resolution shall be prepared and signed off on by the Company, the Employee and the Steward (if involved).

The Parties agree to provide jointly the required Step One Process training to current management personnel (including third party operators involved in the administration and application of this Agreement) and shop stewards. Refresher training will be scheduled at eighteen (18) month intervals for new management and shop stewards.

(b) If the Parties are unable to resolve a dispute or complain in the Step One Process, such dispute or complaint may be reduced to writing as a formal grievance and shall proceed to a Board of Adjustment as provided in Section 18.03 of this Article.

18.03. Step Two Process – Procedure for Adjusting Formal Grievances.
All grievances shall be adjusted exclusively in the following manner:

(a) No grievance shall be entertained or processed unless it is received in writing by either party within fifteen (15) workdays after occurrence of the event giving rise to the grievance or after the aggrieved party hereto acquires knowledge of the occurrence of such event, whichever is later. The written grievance shall set forth the provision(s) of this Agreement alleged to have been violated, and every effort will be made to set forth all of the known facts allegedly constituting the violation. At the time it submits a grievance to the Employer, the Union will furnish the Employer with copies of any written statements, reports or documents relied on by the Union or the grievant to support the grievance (but not including the employee's written grievance submitted to the Union). It is understood that before filing a grievance, an attempt will be made to resolve the dispute with the applicable manager. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, it is understood and agreed that the Union shall have the right to grieve live warning notices at the time of subsequent discharge or suspension unless the case involves witnesses. At the time the warning notice is issued, the Employer shall indicate on the notices whether witnesses are involved.

(b) BOARD OF ADJUSTMENT: Any unresolved grievances shall be reduced to writing and scheduled for hearing by a Board of Adjustment within ten (10) working days of the filing of the grievance. The Board of Adjustment shall be comprised of not more than three (3) representatives of the Employer and three (3) representatives of the Union. For the purpose of attempting to resolve grievances prior to arbitration, the parties, at any meeting prior to the Board of Adjustment hearing and at that hearing, shall make full disclosure to each other of all facts and evidence then known to them which bear on the grievance.

(c) FORMAL ARBITRATION: If the grievance is not settled by the Board of Adjustment within ten (10) days after it receives the grievance, the grievance may be submitted to arbitration by written notice by one party to the other and to the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service within an additional fifteen (15) days. Representatives of the Employer and Union shall select an arbitrator within forty-five (45) days of receipt by alternatively striking names from among a list of seven (7) arbitrators submitted by the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, who are residents of Nevada or California, and who are members of the National Academy of Arbitrators.

The single name remaining shall be the person who serves as the single neutral arbitrator. The right to strike the first name shall be determined by lot. No arbitrator shall be chosen to serve in two consecutive arbitrations unless by mutual consent of the parties. The arbitrator shall be notified immediately by the moving party in writing of his/her selection and shall hear the dispute within thirty (30) days thereafter. He/She shall have no authority, jurisdiction or power to amend, modify, nullify or add to the provisions of this Agreement. The award of the arbitrator shall be rendered in writing to the parties within thirty (30) days of the hearing and shall be final and binding upon the Employer, the Union and the employee(s) involved. The expenses and fees of the arbitration shall be shared equally by the Employer and the Union, except as to witnesses called by either party, the expenses of which and time lost from work, if any, shall be paid by the calling party. Fees for a transcript and court reporter, if any, shall be shared if both parties desire a copy.

18.04. Extension of Time Limits.
The time limits set forth in the grievance procedure in this Article may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties.

ARTICLE 19 - NO STRIKES - NO LOCKOUTS

19.01. No Strikes.
During the term of this Agreement, there will be no work stoppages, picketing of the Employer, sympathy strikes or any other form of economic action or interference with the Employer's business except as authorized in Section 19.02.

19.02. No Lockouts.
During the term of the Agreement, the Employer will not lockout any of the employees in the bargaining unit covered by this Agreement, except where the employees have the right to refuse to cross the picket line under Section 19.03.

19.03. Picket Line.
Refusal of an employee to cross a bona fide picket line sanctioned and approved by the Local Joint Executive Board of Las Vegas and the Hotel and Restaurant Employees and Bartenders International Union, AFL-CIO, shall not be construed to be a breach of this Agreement, provided that the foregoing provisions of this Section shall not be applicable with respect to:

1. Any picket line established for organizational or recognition purposes of any picket line economic or otherwise of any local union which is not currently party to a Collective Bargaining Agreement with the Employer; or

2. Any picket line established as a result of a labor dispute between an employer other than the Employer party hereto and a union other than a Union party hereto.

ARTICLE 20 - MANAGEMENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

20.01. Management Rights.
The Employer reserves and retains, solely and exclusively, all of its inherent rights to manage the business except as such rights may be contrary to or inconsistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. The Employer alone shall have the full and exclusive authority to determine and direct the policies, procedures and methods of operating its business. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the sole and exclusive rights of management which are not abridged by this Agreement include, but are not confined to, the right to determine and from time to time, to re-determine the number, types and locations of its operations, and the methods, equipment and processes to be employed; to discontinue or automate methods, equipment processes or operations; the right to determine the qualifications for new employees and to select its employees; to determine production and work schedules and methods of work and production; to determine the number and type of equipment machinery, materials and supplies to be used or operated and the products to be manufactured, processed or sold or the services to be rendered or supplied; to hire, promote, transfer, assign, layoff, and recall employees to work; reprimand, discharge or otherwise discipline employees, to determine job content and the amount and types of work needed, to determine and make the assignments of work; to schedule the hours and days to be worked on each job in each shift; to discontinue all or any part of its business operations, to expand, reduce, alter, combine, transfer, assign or cease any job classifications, department or operation; to determine the amount of supervision necessary, to control and regulate or discontinue the use of supplies, equipment, machinery and processes and any other property owned, used, leased or possessed by the Employer; to establish, modify and enforce reasonable rules or regulations, policies and practices; to introduce new, different or improved methods, means and processes of transportation, production, maintenance, service and operation; and otherwise, generally to manage the facilities and direct the work force; the Employer's failure to exercise any function or right in any such function or right, nor to preclude the Employer from exercising the same, in some other way not in conflict with the express provisions of this Agreement.

20.02. Not All Inclusive.
The above enumerated rights of management are not all inclusive, but indicate the types of matters which belong to and are retained by the Employer. Nothing shall preclude the Employer from paying wages in excess of the minimums provided for within this Agreement, at its discretion. This may include but is not limited to the initiation and discontinuation of programs intended as incentives or positive reinforcement for employees, such as programs in the area of attendance, safety, or recruiting. It is also understood that the Employer can conduct only those forms of electronic surveillance or drug testing that are permitted by law and this Agreement.

20.03. Retention of Employer Rights.

20.04. Rules and Posting.
The Employer may established and administer reasonable rules, regulations and procedures governing the conduct of employees, provided that such rules, regulations and procedures are not inconsistent with any provisions of this Agreement. Before any such rules, regulations and procedures are made effective, the Employer shall furnish the Union a copy thereof and, if the Union so requests, discuss same with the Union. The Employer shall post and maintain any such rules in such places within its establishment so that all employees affected thereby, and Union Representatives of the Union, may have an opportunity to become familiar with them. The reasonableness of any rules, regulations and procedures, provided for herein, are subject to the grievance procedure of this Agreement.

If an employee appears in court or at the Police Department on behalf of the Employer on his/her days off or after normal working hours, he/she shall receive his/her straight-time rate of pay for the hours spent in such appearance, less the witness fees received, but such time shall not be considered as time worked for any purposes under this Agreement.

21.02. Jury Duty.
An employee who has completed fifty (50) continuous shifts of employment with the Employer, and who is required to serve on a jury, and loses work time because of such service, shall be paid the difference between the jury fee received and his/her regular hours worked for not more than eight (8) hours per day. This section shall apply only with respect to an employee's regularly scheduled days of work and shall not be applicable with respect to days on which the employee was not scheduled to work. Payment for such service hereunder shall be limited to not more than thirty (30) days in any calendar year. At the request of the Employer, the employee shall furnish satisfactory evidence of such jury service. This section shall not apply with respect to any jury summons received by an employee prior to his/her most recent date of hire.

The obligation of the Employer to make contributions to the Fund shall be increased solely as set forth in this Article 22 and Article 24.03 of this Agreement.

Effective for hours worked or paid on and after June 1, 2015, the Employer agrees to contribute for each employee covered by this Agreement the sum of $4.35 per hour to the Fund for the purpose of providing group life, medical, surgical, hospital and/or other health and welfare benefits under the UNITE HERE Health Fund, or such new, amended, merged or consolidated plan as may be adopted by the Trustees. The Employer and Union agree to abide and be bound by all rules, regulations and procedures established, and actions taken by, the Trustees pursuant to the Trust Agreement. The Union is responsible for establishment of the Plan. The Employer shall in no way bear any costs associated with the Plan, except for deduction and sending of amounts as requested by the employee. The Employer shall make no contribution to the Plan. The Union shall indemnify, defend, and save the Employer harmless against any and all claims, demands, suits or other forms of liability, including attorney's fees, which may arise out of, or by reason of, any action taken or not taken by the Employer in reliance upon payroll deduction authorization forms submitted to the Employer for the 401(k) plan.
