THIS AGREEMENT has been entered into the day and year last below written between HOLTEN MEAT INCORPORATED hereinafter designated as the Employer, and UNITED FOOD AND COMMERCIAL WORKERS LOCAL #655, U.F.C.W., hereinafter designated as the Union.

ARTICLE 1 – BARGAINING RIGHTS

1.1 The Union shall be the sole and exclusive bargaining agent for all employees in the classifications listed in the wage schedule in Exhibit "A" at the Employer's facility located at 1682 Sauget Business Blvd., Sauget, Illinois 62206 and at the Employer's operation located at 1429 Boulder Blvd., Valmeyer, IL 62295.

1.2 The Employer agrees not to enter into any agreement or contract with the employees, which in any way conflicts with the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

1.3 Nothing contained in this Agreement is intended to violate any federal or state law, rule or regulation made pursuant thereto. If any part of this Agreement is construed to be in such violation, then that part shall be null and void and the parties agree that they will immediately begin negotiations to replace said void part with a valid provision. In the event a valid provision cannot be agreed upon within thirty (30) calendar days from the start of negotiation then the matter shall be referred to arbitration.

ARTICLE 2 – CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

2.1 It is understood and agreed by and between the parties hereto that, as a condition of continued employment, all persons who are hereafter employed by the Employer in the unit which is the subject of this Agreement, shall become members of the Union not later than the thirty-first day following the beginning of their employment, or the execution date of this Agreement, whichever is later; that the continued employment by the Employer in said unit of persons who are already members in good standing of the Union shall be conditioned upon those persons continuing their payment of the periodic dues of the Union; and that the continued employment of persons who are in the employ of the Employer prior to the date of this Agreement and who are not now members of the Union, shall be conditioned upon those persons becoming members of the Union not later than the thirty-first day following the execution date of this Agreement. The failure of any person to become a member of the Union at such required times shall obligate the Employer, upon written notice from the Union to such effect and to the further effect that Union membership was available to such person on the same terms and conditions generally available to other members, to forthwith discharge such person. Further, the failure of any person to maintain his Union membership in good standing as required herein shall, upon written notice to the Employer by the Union to such effect, obligate the Employer to discharge such person. The Employer, however, shall not discharge an employee for non-membership in the Union if he has reasonable grounds for believing that membership was denied or terminated for reasons other than the failure of the employee to tender the periodic dues and the initiation fees uniformly required as a condition of acquiring or retaining membership.

2.2 The Employer shall, for the term of this Agreement, deduct initiation fees and Union dues weekly from employees who are members of the Union and individually and voluntarily certify in writing authorization for such deductions. The Employer shall remit all sums deducted in this manner to the Union before the fifteenth (15th) day of the month following the month for which the initiation fees and dues were collected.

2.3 The Employer shall forward to the Union on a quarterly basis a current seniority list in Excel or Access format including name, social security number, hire date, classification, wage rate and hours paid in the previous quarter.

2.4 New employees shall be on probation for their first sixty (60) days of employment during which time they may be terminated for any reason. By mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union an extension of the probationary period may be granted, not to exceed an additional thirty (30) days. Such termination shall not be subject to Article 4.

2.5 Once each week or once each year the Employer shall deduct and forward to the designated entity an amount consented to in writing as a political contribution by the affected employee.

ARTICLE 3 – MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

3.1 Except as expressly limited by a specific provision of this Agreement, the Employer retains and shall continue to have the sole and exclusive right to manage its business and direct the working forces, including but not limited to the right to plan, direct and control operations, the right to hire including the right to drug test applicants, suspend, discipline, demote, discharge for cause, the right to maintain order and efficiency, transfer or promote, or to relieve employees from active duty because of lack of work or other legitimate reasons, the right to study, determine and regulate the methods, quality of work, and the sources and kinds of merchandise, materials, parts, facilities and equipment used, handled or sold, the right to schedule and reschedule work hours, work shifts and shift hours and overtime requirements and the assignments thereto, the right to select customers, the right to extend, limit or curtail operations when and in such manner as it deems advisable to do so, the right to establish, modify and enforce rules and regulations including rules concerning drug and alcohol abuse, the right to close, sell, liquidate or move, relocate or transfer the business in its entirety or any part thereof, and including the right to expand, reduce, alter, combine, move, transfer, relocate or terminate any job, job content, department, operation or service, to subcontract provided employees are not laid off, and the right to determine the number, location and operation of its facilities as well as the right to make and enter into decisions to do any of the foregoing and to determine and resolve the effects of such decisions by whatever means the Employer deems appropriate, subject only to the express provisions of this Agreement.

3.2 In its sole discretion, the Employer reserves the right to implement or to later withdraw a merit pay program that may, in given circumstances, supplement the base wage of some or all employees. The establishment and initiation or withdrawal of the terms and conditions of said merit program are within the management rights of the Employer, including the right to perform individual evaluations of employees with or without the individual employee's participation. This section, its application and implementation is not subject to and is expressly removed from the provisions of Article IV, Dispute Procedure, and the exclusive remedy pertaining to this section is set forth in Section 3.3.

SIDE LETTER NUMBER 1
Attendance Program

Each employee is hired because of the value that the employee brings to the Employer and to fill a gap that existed in a position until the employee came to fill that gap. If the employee is not at work, that gap remains. In an effort to consistently appreciate the employee's value to the Employer and provide top quality service and products to the Employer's customers, the following Attendance Policy has been designed.

1. DEFINITIONS

(a) 100% Attendance — 100% attendance is presence at work each scheduled workday.

(b) Absence Occurrence — An absence occurrence is time missed from work in excess of two (2) hours from each scheduled work period. An employee more than two (2) hours late may, in the Employer's sole discretion, not be permitted to work.

(c) Tardy — A tardy is a clock-in or punch-in after the scheduled start time or leaving during or early from a scheduled work period if the time is less than two (2) hours. Two (2) tardies equal one (1) absence occurrence.

(d) Scheduled work period — A scheduled work period is the employee's scheduled shift including scheduled overtime. It is also a voluntary or premium work schedule that the employee has committed to in advance.

(e) Doctor's Excuse — A doctor's excuse is a valid written excuse personally signed or stamped by an MD, DDS, chiropractor specifying the reason that the employee had to miss work for each day tardy or absent. The doctor's excuse must be provided to the Employer the first (1st) day the employee reports to work after the absence occurrence or tardy or it shall be void. Emergency Room MD (Doctor) excuses are valid for up to three (3) calendar days.

(f) Continuing Care Absence Occurrences Excuse — A continuing care absence occurrences excuse is a valid written excuse from a doctor, healthcare provider, or Urgency Care facility and will reduce two (2) or more consecutive absence occurrences up to one (1) calendar week to one (1) absence occurrence.

(g) Non-Doctor's Excuse — A non-doctor's excuse is verification in writing that an employee is absent or tardy due to the following reasons: jury duty, funeral leave, industrial accident, medical leave of absence, union business, vacation, layoff, or weather (Employer authorized). Verification must be provided to the Employer the first (1st) day the employee returns to work or the non-doctor's excuse will be void.

(h) Mandatory Court Date — In the case of a mandatory court day, the employee must provide written verification to the Operations Manager at least two (2) weeks prior to the court date. If the employee does not provide written verification to the Operations

Manager at least two (2) weeks prior to the court date, one (1) point shall be charged to the employee.

(i) Recording Period — A recording period is nine (9) months. An absence occurrence or tardy recorded during such period will be deleted from the employee's attendance record on the nine (9) month anniversary date of the absence occurrence or tardy.

(j) Attendance Record — An attendance record is a record of all days present, all absence occurrences and tardies of each employee.

(k) Key Personnel — Employees in key positions, such as Sanitation employees scheduled to work Monday Morning Pre-Op, Shipping Employee working Grinding Room Staging, or Maintenance employees scheduled for Sunday, must make arrangements at least four (4) hours prior to their scheduled start time or it will be treated as a No Call/No Show regardless of notification. Failure to work assigned overtime by Key Personnel is subject to disciplinary action up to and including discharge. In the event a Sanitation employee is absent for the four (4) hour overtime shift or the eight (8) hour shift that occurs on the same day, the maximum amount of points assessed is one (1) point.

2. PROGRAM OPERATION:

(a) All absence occurrences or tardies of an employee will be recorded on the employee's attendance record.

(b) Excused absences:

(1) Only approved time off requests will be accepted to excuse absence occurrences or tardies so that they do not count on the employee's attendance record.

(2) A doctor's excuse will act only to reduce two (2) or more consecutive absence occurrences up to one (1) calendar week to one absence occurrence.

(c) Non-excused absences:

(1) For the third (3rd) non-excused absence occurring during a recording period, the employee will receive a verbal warning.

(2) For the fourth (4th) non-excused absence occurring during a recording period, the employee will receive a written warning.

(3) For the fifth (5th) non-excused absence occurring during a recording period, the employee will receive a one (1) day suspension without pay.

(4) For the sixth (6th) non-excused absence occurring during a recording period, the employee will receive a written "Final" warning.

(5) For the seventh (7th) non-excused absence occurring during a recording period, the employee will be discharged.

(d) An employee may request scheduled time off in advance, by making arrangements minimally one (1) week ahead of time with the Operations Manager. For documented emergencies, twenty-four (24) hours advance notice may be accepted. When scheduled time off has been approved, the employee will be taken off the work schedule and not subject to disciplinary action, per agreement and the discretion of the Operations Manager. All paid leave must be used before any unpaid approved time off will be allowed.

SIDE LETTER NUMBER 2

Employees will be allowed to bid to jobs posted by the Employer from one shift to another provided they are qualified to perform the job to which they are bidding. The Employer will determine who should fill the job opening by taking into consideration who satisfies the qualifications for the job and can perform the duties of the job. If the Employer determines that there are two or more "equally qualified" employees who signed the internal job posting, the most senior employee will be selected. The Employer reserves the right to determine the qualifications for jobs and determine if any employee satisfies the qualifications for the job. When the Employer determines that there is no qualified employee, the Employer retains the right to hire an external candidate for the job opening. This process will be utilized solely for single job openings. When multiple openings in a department occur [two (2) or more simultaneously such as a crew expansion], the Employer retains the right to fill jobs from any additional sources (internal and external) based on qualifications. Employees will not be allowed to bid from one shift to another due to the creation of temporary new lines during peak season. No employee will be moved to his or her new shift until his or her replacement has been trained and qualified. This Side Letter shall remain in force through the duration of the Agreement.
