Employees who are reinstated to employment after serving in military service shall receive their former job classification and rate of pay, plus any general increases applied to their former rate of pay since they entered military service. Step rate increases shall be applied only up to and including six (6) months continuous service on the rate of pay of full time and part time clerks, checkers, and wrappers who are reinstated to employment after serving in military service. Time spent in military service by apprentice meat cutters shall not be credited as time worked for purposes of accruing service on the progression scale.

401(K) PLAN

401 (K) Plan: The company will offer the same 401 (K) plan currently offered to non-bargaining associates with the exception of company contribution for match and profit sharing, effective April 1, 2002. The company fully retains the right to modify the plan including: design, investments, and vendors.

ARTICLE 25
SENIORITY

A. Probation Period

1. Newly hired employees will be subject to a probationary period of ninety (90) days.

2. The specified probationary periods may be extended by thirty (30) days provided written notice of such extension is provided to the union.

3. During the probationary period an employee may be disciplined, discharged or laid off at the discretion of the Company and such action shall not be subject to the grievance and/or arbitration procedures of this agreement.

4. An employee who successfully completes his probation period shall receive seniority credit retroactive to his initial date of hire.

B. Seniority

Employees who have successfully completed their probationary period will have seniority from their most recent date of hire and ending when

1. The Employee quits or is discharged for cause; or

2. The Employee is absent for more than two (2) days without having notified the Employer unless prevented from doing so by good causes; or
3. The Employee is laid off or absent because of illness or other bona fide reason for more than one (1) year in case of full-time Employee or six (6) months in the case of part-time Employee, or unless Employer grants longer leave of absence;

4. The Employee fails to report to work promptly on the expiration of any leave of absence unless such Employee secures an extension of such leave of absence with the consent of the Employer.

5. The Employee fails to return to work after lay-off within a week after the certified mailing notice of recall. Any notice required to be given by this Article, shall be considered given when the same has been deposited in the mail addressed to the Employee at his/her last known address as shown by the Employer’s record.

C. Lay-Offs.

In the event the Company determines that a reduction in the number of employees in any full-time job classification is necessary, layoffs will be done by reverse seniority, by department, within each classification (Department Manager, Clerk, etc.).

The junior employees designated for layoff in a job classification will have a right to exercise their seniority, on a district wide basis, to displace less senior employees in a lower rated job classification. The rating of job classifications for purposes of this Article is as follows:

- Department Manager

- Assistant Department Manager (in the same department)

- Full time Clerk (in the same department)

An employee who elects to exercise his right to bump in to a lower rated position will receive the pay, benefits, work schedule, and other terms and conditions of employment accorded to the position into which they have bumped.

Full-time employees laid off because of lack of work when no other full-time work is available shall be offered part-time work at the rate applicable thereto if part-time work is available even if displacement of part-time employees is required. A full-time employee who accepts part-time work shall be given preference for re-employment for full-time work as if he/she were on lay-off.

Part-time employees displaced by a lay-off may displace other part-time employees in their site and department with less seniority in their job classification.

Recall:

Full-time employees laid off for lack of work shall have the right to job openings which may occur in their classification within a period not to exceed twelve (12) months after their date of layoff. If the Employees are re-employed within the above period after the date of layoff, they shall be reinstated and shall not lose their continuity of employment. If the employee is offered recall and refuses, he/she shall no longer have any recall rights.

Part-time employees, employed twelve (12) months or more who are laid off for lack of work shall have the right to job openings which may occur in their classification within a period not to exceed six (6) months after their date of layoff. If the employee is offered recall and refuses, he/she shall no longer have any recall rights.

D. Promotions.

Respecting promotions, the qualifications and ability of the employee shall be considered in conjunction with seniority. The Company agrees to make a sincere effort to train in advance senior employees to fill future higher-rated classifications. Final determination of qualifications shall rest with management which shall be the sole judge of qualifications, and this determination shall not be subject to arbitration.

The Employer has the right to subject candidates for promotion to a drug screen, subject to applicable state and federal law.

E. Full-Time Vacancies.

When a full-time clerk is needed, preference shall be given to the senior part-time employee, provided the employee is qualified and available for work. Final determination on qualification shall rest with management which shall be the sole judge of qualifications and this determination shall not be subject to arbitration.

F. When a full-time employee has had prior continuous service as a part-time employee before being appointed to full-time and has worked full-time for a continuous period of two (2) months he/she shall be credited for one (1) month of service for each two (2) months of part-time service for the purpose of lay-off by seniority, rate classification, sick leave, life insurance and disability insurance. When the part-time employee is made a full-time employee within the same department, he/she is credited with part-time service, one month for each two months of part-time service, for the purpose of lay-off by seniority, rate classification, sick leave, life insurance and disability insurance immediately upon assuming full-time status.

These benefits shall not be applied retroactively. When a full-time employee becomes a part-time employee, he/she shall retain his/her full length of service for all part-time benefits.

ARTICLE 26
STEWARDS

The Union shall have the right to have a Steward in each of the Company stores covered by this Agreement who shall be a full time employee of the Company.

In addition to their seniority rights as regular employees, Stewards shall have top seniority in layoffs due to lack of work within their respective store and classification.

No Steward shall be transferred unless such transfer is mutually agreed upon between the Company and the Union.

The Union shall supply the Company with a list of Stewards and store locations. The Steward shall have the authority to handle any violation of the provisions of this Agreement upon occurrence of such violations. The method of handling such violations of this Agreement is for the Steward to report the violation to the Store Manager.

-30-

The Steward shall not in any way interfere with store management in their operation of the store.

Each store shall allow one employee one (1) day off with pay each year to attend Shop Steward’s Conference.

ARTICLE 27
DISCHARGE/SUSPENSION

The Employer retains the right to discharge or suspend any employee for proper cause. Controversies involving the suspension or discharge of any employee shall be called to the attention of the District Director, or his designee, in writing, within fourteen (14) days after the event, or shall otherwise be treated as waived and the matter closed to further consideration.

ARTICLE 28
GRIEVANCE-ARBITRATION

A. For purposes of this Agreement, the word “grievance” shall be deemed to mean only a dispute between the Company and the Union and the Employees it represents concerning the meaning or application of this Agreement.
B. An effort shall be made to dispose of all grievances as soon as reasonably possible pursuant to the following provisions:

1. The employee, together with his/her steward, or the steward alone, if he/she wishes, within ten (10) calendar days after the occurrence of the situation, condition or action of management giving rise to the grievance shall meet with the Store Manager to adjust the grievance. The Store Manager will have five (5) calendar days after the meeting to answer the grievance.

2. If the grievance is not resolved by the Store Manager’s answer, the Union Representative will have seven (7) calendar days after receipt of the answer to notify the District Manager that the grievance is being advanced to their level.
The Union Representative will meet with the District Manager, or his designee, within seven (7) calendar days after receipt of the notice to attempt to resolve the grievance. The District Manager, or his designee, shall be responsible for answering the grievance within seven (7) calendar days after their meeting.

3. If the grievance is not settled at Level 2, it shall be reduced to writing and filed with the Vice President of Labor Relations within seven (7) calendar days of the Step 2 answer. The Director of Labor Relations shall discuss the grievance with a Union Representative and endeavor to settle the grievance. The Director of Labor Relations shall be responsible for giving an answer in writing within seven (7) calendar days after the conclusion of the discussion under Step 3.

4. If the grievance is not settled at Level 3, it must be referred to arbitration within 14 days of the Step 3 answer. Grievances may not be referred to arbitration by individual employees.

C. In the event that either party (Union or Company) elects to submit a grievance to arbitration, the Arbitrator shall be selected and governed by the following procedures.

D. If the parties do not agree upon an impartial arbitrator within seven (7) days, the matter shall be submitted to the American Arbitration Association for appointment of an arbitrator and for hearings in accordance with its rules.

E. The decision of the Arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the parties hereto and upon any Employee, or Employees, affected thereby. The Arbitrator shall, however, have no power either to add to or subtract from, or to modify any of the terms of this Agreement, or any Agreement made supplementary thereto. If either party contends that the above provision has been violated, the matter may be referred to any court of competent jurisdiction which shall have the power to determine the question and which shall interpret this agreement in accordance with the commonly accepted meaning of the words used herein and the principle that the parties are agreed that there are no restrictions intended on the management of the Company other than those expressly set forth herein. The grievance procedure and arbitration provided for herein shall constitute the sole and exclusive method of determination, decision and adjustment or settlement between the parties of any and all grievances as herein defined.

F. Each of the parties hereto shall bear his own arbitration cost and one-half (1/2) of the fee and expenses of the arbitrator. Grievances, so far as practical, shall be taken up after working hours and no payment shall be made by the Company for time spent by an Employee in dealing with grievances at such time; except a reasonable amount of time spent by Employees in routine adjustment of a grievance in working hours under the first step of the grievance procedure set forth in the preceding paragraphs of this Article shall be paid for by the Company as though time worked. Steward’s time in settling grievances during his/her regularly scheduled hours, under step one and two, shall be paid for by the Company.

G. Nothing contained herein shall prevent an Employee from exercising his/her rights under Section 9(a) of the Labor Management Relations Act of 1947, as amended.

H. A grievance not initiated within the time limit specified, holidays excluded, will be deemed waived. Failure of the moving party to appeal a decision within the time limits specified will mean that the grievance shall be considered settled on the basis of the decision last made and shall not be eligible for further appeal. Failure of a party to answer or meet within the time limit specified will mean that the appeal may be taken to the next step immediately. This provision shall apply equally to grievances brought by the Employee, the Union, or the Employer.
ARTICLE 29
HOURS OF WORK

A. Full Time Employees

1. The regular work week shall be forty (40) hours per week, five (5) eight (8) hour days.

2. The Holiday work week shall be thirty-two (32) hours per week, four (4) eight (8) hour days.

B. Part-Time Employees

For purposes of this Agreement, a part-time employee is defined as one who is normally scheduled to work less than thirty-five (35) hours weekly. If a part-time employee works more than 36 hours in a week, he/she shall be paid a premium of 30% for all hours worked in excess of 36 hours.

Part-timers shall work no less than fifteen (15) hours a week, Monday through Saturday, except during a holiday week. Part-timers shall work no less than ten (10) hours a week during holiday weeks, except during weeks with Saturday holidays, when there shall be no minimum hours.

C. Employees may be scheduled for up to eight (8) hour shifts, with or without an unpaid meal period of up to one hour.

D. Hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in one day shall be paid at one and one half times the employee’s regular hourly rate. No overtime shall be worked unless authorized by management. Employees may be required to accept overtime if there are insufficient volunteers available within the store with the necessary qualifications when the work is needed. Involuntary overtime will be assigned in inverse order of seniority among employees in the department who are at the store when the work is necessary.

E. Full-time employees will be entitled to two (2) fifteen minute break periods. Those breaks will be taken at times assigned by the supervisor. Full-time employees who are not scheduled for an unpaid lunch break may, with the manager’s authorization, combine their fifteen minute breaks into a one half hour meal period. That combined break will be taken at times assigned by the supervisor. Part-time employees scheduled to work more than three (3) hours shall be entitled to one (1) fifteen minute break to be taken at times assigned by the supervisor.

F. Schedules

The schedules of all store employees shall be posted by 1:00 p.m. the Friday of the previous week in ink at the store time clock. The schedule and any change therein shall remain posted for the entire week. Where changes are necessary, the Employer will make all reasonable effort to change the work schedules at least one day in advance; however, the Union recognizes that this will not be possible when factors are beyond the Employer’s control, such as failure of the employee to notify the Employer in reasonable time that he/she will not report for work.

G. Sunday-Holiday Work

Hours worked on Sunday and on any of the storewide holidays (i.e., New Year’s Day, Memorial Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day and Independence Day) will be paid at time and one half the employee’s regular hourly rate of pay.

All employees hired on or after March 7, 2004 who work on a Sunday will receive a premium of $1.50 per hour for the first twelve months of employment, and will receive time-and-one-half thereafter.

All employees hired on or after March 7, 2004 who are not eligible for holiday pay shall be paid straight time for any hours worked on a listed holiday.

Work on Sunday and Holidays shall be voluntary except that employees may be compelled to accept such work if there are insufficient volunteers with the necessary qualifications. Mandatory Sunday and Holiday work will be assigned in inverse order based on seniority in the department. Sunday and Holiday work may be allocated separately to full time employees and part time employees to obtain the full-time/part-time ratio determined appropriate by store management.

If there are more employees with Sunday and Holiday availability than needed by the Employer, Sunday and Holiday work shall be rotated among employees with the necessary qualifications by seniority.

H. Night Premium. $0.75 per hour for all scheduled hours worked between 11:00 P.M. and 7:00 A.M. Employees must work more than two consecutive hours between 11:00 P.M. and 7:00 A.M. to be eligible for night premium.

I. No Pyramiding. There shall be no pyramiding of premium pay.

J. Regular hours worked by full-time employees in excess of forty (40) in a payweek shall be compensated for at the hourly rate of one and one-half (1 1/2) times their regular rate for said excess hours, and regular hours worked in excess of thirty-two (32) hours in a holiday week by full time employees shall be compensated for at the hourly rate of one and one half (1 1/2) times their regular rate of pay.

UFCW LOCAL 371

Local 371 Members Injured On the Job:

Know Your Rights

Report Every Injury Immediately
Failure to report a work-related injury promptly is the primary reason for a workers' compensation claim to be denied. Report all injuries immediately, and make sure a First Report of Injury is filed out.

Initial Medical Treatment
Your employer will designate the doctor or facility to provide you with your initial medical treatment. In most cases this will be a nearby walk-in clinic, hospital ER, or Industrial Health Care. You are only required to get your initial treatment at this facility. If you need further treatment, you can select your own physician. If you do not select your own physician, the doctor or facility selected by your employer will become the attending physician.

Your Right to Choose Your Attending Physician
After the employer provides you with your initial medical treatment, you have the right to choose your own attending physician. If you have a serious injury that is going to require extended treatment or cause you to be disabled, the Union strongly urges you to choose your own attending physician rather than continue treatment at a clinic-like facility.

If your employer has a managed medical care plan for workers' compensation, you can select your attending physician but he or she must be in the plan's network. At your request, your employer must make you aware of the doctors who are in the network. The network must include doctors in all major specialties.

If your employer does not have a managed medical care plan for workers' compensation, you can select an attending physician any physician licensed by the State of Connecticut.

Know Your Rights
Once you have established an attending physician, you cannot change doctors unless:

- The attending physician refers you to another doctor;
- The insurance company grants permission for you to change doctors; or
- The Workers' Compensation Commissioner authorizes you to see another doctor.

Examination Requirement
Even if you have your own attending physician, the employer or their insurer can require you to submit for examination by another physician. They cannot make you accept treatment from another doctor against your wishes.

Billing for Medical Treatment
Bills for your medical treatment should be sent by the medical provider directly to your employer's workers' compensation insurance carrier, never to you. Make sure you know who that insurance carrier is and inform the doctor's office. If you have out-of-pocket expenses for prescriptions, these must be reimbursed in full by the workers' compensation insurance carrier.

Medical Treatment/Therapy
If you can continue to work but need medical treatment or therapy, this should be done during your work hours if available without any loss in pay. If not available during your work hours, and you must go on your own time, you must be paid your usual hourly rate for the time spent getting treatment and going to and from treatment. You should also be reimbursed for your travel expenses at the rate of 15¢ per mile.
