AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT made this 20th day of April, 2003, by and between THE STOP & SHOP SUPERMARKET COMPANY (hereinafter referred to as the "Employer"), and the UNITED FOOD AND COMMERCIAL WORKERS INTERNATIONAL UNION, LOCAL #464A, AFL-CIO (hereinafter referred to as the "Union"), for and on behalf of its members now employed and who may be hereafter employed by the Employer and who, in this Agreement, shall be designated as "employees".

ARTICLE 1. - RECOGNITION

The Employer hereby recognizes the UNITED FOOD AND COMMERCIAL WORKERS UNION, LOCAL #464A, AFFILIATED WITH THE AFL-CIO, as the exclusive representative of its meat, poultry, fish, appetizer and delicatessen department employees, both full-time and part-time, in the present and future stores of the Employer located within the present and future jurisdictional area of the said Local Union within the States of New Jersey and New York.

ARTICLE 2. - REPRESENTATION

It is further agreed that the accredited official of the Union will constitute the Union representative in all negotiations between the Employer and the Union.

ARTICLE 3. - EMPLOYMENT

The Employer, on requiring additional or new help will secure the same from the Employment Office of the Union providing, however, such individuals qualify. The Union agrees that its Employment Office will not discriminate against non-union applicants. All new employees will secure a work card from the Union Office or from a Union official prior to commencing work.

ARTICLE 4. - UNION SHOP

A. All employees covered by this Agreement shall, as a condition of employment become members of the Union on or after the thirtieth (30th) day following the beginning of such employment or the effective date of this Agreement, whichever is the later, and shall thereafter maintain their membership in the Union in good standing.

B. Any employee who is expelled or suspended from the Union because of non-payment of initiation fees and dues (including such other obligations to the Union, failure to pay which would make an employee subject to discharge under the Labor-Management Relations Act, 1947) shall be subject to dismissal after notification in writing to the Employer by the Union provided, however, that the employee may have a reasonable time within which to make such payments of initiation fees or dues, the failure of payment of which has caused the expulsion or suspension.

ARTICLE 5. - DUES DEDUCTION

The Employer will deduct weekly from each employee dues and initiation fees that may be due the Union, provided the employee has authorized the deduction in writing. The deductions will start with the first (1st) week following thirty (30) days of employment and each succeeding week thereafter. Such deductions will be forwarded monthly to the Secretary-Treasurer, together with a list setting forth the name and social security number of each employee and the amount of money remitted on his or her behalf.

ARTICLE 6. - RIGHT TO VISIT STORES

It is mutually agreed that the authorized representatives of the Union have the right to visit the Employer's stores at any time to check working conditions, examine payrolls and otherwise insure proper compliance with this contract. The authorized representatives of the Union will make a good faith effort to notify the Store Manager or his designee of his presence prior to beginning his visit to the store.

ARTICLE 7. - PROBATIONARY PERIOD FOR NEW EMPLOYEES

The trial period for new employees shall be the first (1st) sixty (60) days of employment.

ARTICLE 8. - SENIORITY AND LAYOFFS

A. The Employer recognizes the principles of seniority and shall be governed by these principles in the matters of layoffs and recalls as provided in Paragraph E below.

B. Seniority is defined as the employee's continuous length of employment with the Employer. An employee's seniority shall be considered broken in the event of any of the following:

1. The employee quits or resigns.
2. The employee is discharged for cause.
3. The employee's rights to recall have expired.

4. The employee fails to return to work in accordance with the terms of leave of absence without prior approval by Employer.

C. The Employer shall furnish the Union quarterly with a seniority list containing the names, store identification number, social security number, job classifications, dates of hire, date of birth and rates of pay of all its employees subject to the Agreement. In addition, the Employer will supply bi-weekly names, job titles, locations and pay of all new employees and terminations.

D. Full-time employees will not be laid off before part-time employees in the same classification within a mutually agreed upon geographical area, provided such full-time employees are available on a part-time basis for the hours required to be worked within the classification. It is not the Employer's intent to replace the full-time work force with a part-time work force, nor is it the intent of the Union to eliminate the part-time work force.

E. Employees shall be laid off within their classification on a one (1) week's notice in writing to the Union and the Employer; however, in the event that unusual circumstances beyond the control of the Employer, including but not limited to emergencies or acts of God, consumer boycotts and leafletting, reduce the need for employees on a short-term basis, the foregoing notice provision shall be reduced from one (1) week to eight (8) hours. All laid off employees will retain their right to be recalled for one (1) year. No new employee shall be hired until all laid off employees have been recalled. Notice of any recall will be by certified mail sent to the home of the employee with a copy to the Union. The employee must return to work within seven (7) days of receipt of letter or forfeit all rights to be recalled. All recalls will be on a seniority basis. The provisions of this subsection E shall be applicable only after six (6) months of continuous service with the Employer.

F. An employee absent because of illness (including maternity) or accident, including workers' compensation, shall retain seniority rights for eighteen (18) months. The provisions of this subsection F shall be applicable only after six (6) months of continuous service with the Employer. Absences of more than sixty (60) days or less shall not adversely affect work progressions, personal holidays or sick leave entitlements. The Employer may require physical examinations by a Medical Doctor. Such examinations will be solely at the expense of the Employer.

G. Full-time employees with one (1) year or more of continuous service who are laid off through no fault of their own shall be given preference for part-time employment and guaranteed a minimum of sixteen (16) hours and a maximum of twenty-nine (29) hours of work per week by classification at his or her full-time hourly rate of pay.

H. In a store where a full-time employee is laid off, no part-time employee shall be hired in the store within the same classification where the layoff took place until such time as the employee last laid off shall be returned to full employment, unless the employee's rights of recall has expired, or unless the last laid off full-time employee has declined such part-time employment as is made available by the Employer.

I. Employees of acquired stores who are hired and retained after the completion of their probationary period shall have seniority for layoff purposes only among themselves in the acquired stores, but not over other employees employed by the Employer prior to any such acquisition.

ARTICLE 9. - DISCIPLINE, GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE AND ARBITRATION

A. No employee shall be disciplined or discharged except for just cause including, but not limited to intoxication, dishonesty, incompetency or inability to perform the job. An employee has the legal right to be represented by a Shop Steward or Business Representative during any investigatory interview with the Employer which could lead to discipline. Use of discipline records is limited to three (3) years prior to the date of the incident.

B. If the Union and the Employer cannot agree as to the justification of the discipline and/or the discharge, the dispute shall be submitted to arbitration.

C. The Employer shall submit written notice of an employee's discharge from employment to the Union by certified mail within seven (7) days from the date of such discharge. If the Union decides to proceed to arbitration concerning an employee's discharge, it shall notify the Employer by certified mail of its intention to proceed to arbitration within sixty (60) days of receipt of the Employer's notice of discharge.

D. Any disputes, differences or grievances arising out of the interpretation, application, breach or claim of breach of the provisions of this Agreement shall be settled solely and exclusively in the following manner:

1. By conference with the duly authorized officials of the Union and a representative of the Employer designated by the executive in charge of the Employer's unit.

2. In the event that such dispute, difference or grievance shall not have been satisfactorily adjusted between the parties in the manner provided above, then such dispute, difference or grievance arising out of the interpretation, application, breach or claim of breach of the provisions of this Agreement shall be submitted to arbitration at the request of either party to the respective New York or New Jersey Board of Mediation.

E. The decision of the arbitrator designated by the Mediation Board shall be final and binding upon the parties. The parties agree that the expenses of arbitration shall be born equally between them.

F. The arbitrator shall not have the power to arbitrate provisions of a new Agreement, or to arbitrate away in whole or in part any provisions of this Agreement, nor shall he have the power to add to, delete from or modify the provisions of this Agreement.

G. Any employee who shall, at the discretion of the arbitrator be required to testify at or attend any hearings or arbitration, mediation or settlement of any question or violations of this Agreement shall not suffer any loss in wage by reason thereof.

H. Any and all rights applicable to an employee shall be asserted, discussed and adjusted solely and exclusively by the duly authorized officials of the Union and not by an individual member acting on his or her own behalf.

ARTICLE 10. - TRANSFERS

A. The Employer shall consider seniority at store level by classification as well as sound business reasons in making transfers.

B. If an employee is temporarily or permanently transferred more than twenty-five (25) miles beyond the mileage from his or her home store, he or she shall receive twenty ($.20) cents per mile for each such additional mile traveled. The home store is defined as the store to which the employee was permanently assigned as of January 15, 1987.

C. No travel pay shall be due in the event of a transfer caused by a store closing, a promotion or a lack of seniority to retain a job at store level.

D. The Employer shall notify the Union and the employee in writing seven (7) days in advance of a permanent transfer.

E. Temporary transfers shall be limited to a maximum of two (2) weeks.

F. The seniority of an employee shall not be affected by a transfer.

G. There will be no reduction in nor elimination of travel pay being paid at the beginning of this Agreement because of an interpretation of this Article.
