Curriculum

I, Frank A. Scattaregia, pursued my undergraduate training at Carneige-Mellon University from 1965-1969, where I received a Bachelor of Science in Chemical Engineering and was elected to the Tau Beta Pi Engineering honorary society graduating with honors. From 1969- 1975, I attended medical school at the University of Bologna Medical Center in Italy, graduating from there cum laude. During my medical education, I participated here in the United States with several research projects in the field of anesthesiology, and this resulted in two publications. The main subject of these publications was the utilixation of Cyclic AMP and reversal of narcosis in rats.

From 1975-1976, I attended the University of Pittsburgh and received a Masters degree in Public Health with a Specialty in Epidemiology. During that year, I participated in the Mrfit program, the multi-risk intervention trial for coronary artery disease, the results of which have now been published. From 1976-1977, I did my internship at Western Pennsylvania Hospital in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. From 1976-1979, I did a three year straight medical Residency at the Western Pennsylvania Hospital and became board eligible on June 30, 1979.

In August of 1979 through present, I have been in private practice in General Internal Medicine at the Stonewall Jackson Memorial Hospital in Weston, West Virginia and at St. Joseph's Hospital in Buckhannon, West Virginia.

I have held many directors positions at Stonewall Jackson Memorial Hospital which include:

1. Medical director of the intensive care unit from 1979 to 1986.
2. Chief of Medicine and Pediatrics from 1982 to 1987.
3. Medical director of the Respiratory care unit from 1979-1985 and again from 1995 to present.
4. Physician consultant of the EKG and Holter Monitoring department from 1979 to 1987
5. Consultant to the Cardiac Rehabilitation program from 1981 to present.
6. Director of the Stonewall Jackson Echocardiography service from 1982 to 1986.
7. Vice-President of the Stonewall Jackson Medical Staff in 1980.
8. Chief of Staff 1981.
