Resources

Enrolled Providers

- Claimants do not have to pay out-of-pocket costs for treatment with enrolled providers
- Bills processed electronically
  - Program pays bills based on established fee schedule (provider and claimant reimbursement)
  - Patient not responsible for difference between charged amount versus schedule fee payment
- Enrollment information available on DEEOIC website

Conflict of Interest

- Any person or family member providing payable medical services to a beneficiary or potential beneficiary cannot be designated as that individual's Authorized Representative. This is considered a conflict of interest.

Representative Activities

- Request services related to accepted condition
- Ensures medical necessity is documented clearly
- Add consequential illnesses when appropriate
- Work with treating physician
- Respond to development letters
- Professional interactions
- Interact with client on actual needs

Medical Second Opinions

- DEEOIC Medical Benefits Examiners (MBEs) are instructed to always work with prescribing or treating physicians to complete any claim for medical benefits.
- If, for any reason, the prescribing or treating physician is unable to provide the clarifications, support or details required by the MBE to make a decision on the claim, then a Second Opinion Referral may occur.
  - Second Opinions are conducted by licensed physicians and are intended to provide specific medical necessity-related details required so the MBE can determine the compensability of the claim in accordance with our statute, regulations and policies.
