

U.S. Department of Labor
Office of Workers' Compensation Programs
Division of Energy Employees
Occupational Illness Compensation

Resource Centers

We are contracted by the Department of Labor to help people file compensation and benefits claims under the Energy Employees Occupational Illness Compensation Program Act, at no cost to you.

Start Your Claim with Us!

We are here to:

- Explain what compensation and benefits are available.
- Help each employee and/or survivor file a claim for benefits under Part B and Part E of the EEOICPA.
- Explain how to file additional claims for wage loss and impairment under Part E.
- Help claimants complete the necessary forms and occupational history questionnaire.
- Provide ongoing claim status and continuous support throughout the claims process.
- Submit documents to DEEOIC.
- Conduct community outreach and support DOL outreach events across the country.
- Explain medical benefits available under EEOICPA.
- Help complete medical and travel reimbursement forms for out-of-pocket expenses.
- Help resolve medical billing issues associated with approved conditions.
- Guide medical providers on program enrollment.
- Assist with prior authorization for medical procedures, home health care, durable medical equipment, and non-local travel associated with a covered condition.
