JOB SUMMARY: About the Agency
One position will be filled from this announcement at any of the following locations: Washington, DC; Denver, CO; Jacksonville, FL; Seattle, WA; or Cleveland, OH. DOL seeks to attract and retain a high performing and diverse workforce in which employees’ differences are respected and valued to better meet the varying needs of the diverse customers we serve. DOL fosters a diverse and inclusive work environment that promotes collaboration, flexibility and fairness so that all individuals are able to participate and contribute to their full potential. This position is located in the Department of Labor, Office of Workers Compensation Programs, Division of Energy Employees Occupational Illness Compensation (DEEOIC), Final Adjudication Branch (FAB). The mission of DEEOIC is to administer the benefits and provisions of the Energy Employees Occupational Illness Compensation Program Act (EEOICPA). The program offers benefits to employees who suffer from any of a broad range of illnesses and who worked in a broad range of occupations and professions at once or more of the facilities identified as atomic weapons employers, beryllium vendors and uranium mines or mills. This position is responsible for reviewing recommended decisions issued by the district office and drafting final agency decisions, which are subject to federal court review. This position has promotion potential to GS-12. This position is inside the bargaining unit.

TRAVEL REQUIRED * Not Required

RELOCATION AUTHORIZED * No

KEY REQUIREMENTS * U.S. Citizenship. * Appointment to this position may require a background investigation. * Must be at least 16 years of age. * Requires a probationary period if the requirement has not been met. * *

DUTIES: Independently reviews the evidence of record developed by and recommended decisions issued by any of the four DEEOIC district offices for factual and legal accuracy on all claims filed under the EEOICPA. Upon completion of the review, the claims examiner independently determines whether the claim has been properly adjudicated and drafts a final decision for a hearing representative signature. The claims examiner may also decide that the recommended decision should be reversed for acceptance of the claim. This requires review of all employment and medical evidence of record. In cases where medical or scientific questions are presented by the case, the claims examiner may prepare a statement of accepted facts and defines questions for presentation to a physician, toxicologist, health physicist or industrial hygienist. The claims examiner reviews claimant requests for reconsideration of final decision issued by other claims examiners and hearing representatives and drafts an order, based on a thorough review of arguments and evidence in support of the request, granting or denying the request. Conducts research of complex issues and prepares oral and written reports of that research for the benefit of colleagues and management. * * *

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED: Applicants must have 52 weeks of specialized experience equivalent to at least the next lower grade level, GS-11, in the Federal Service. Specialized experience is defined as experience independently reviewing recommended claims decisions and writing full, final decisions and/or orders which require an evaluation of employment and medical evidence, application of laws, regulations, and policies to that evidence. A writing sample may be required at the time of interview. Education cannot be substituted for experience at the GS-12 grade level. Applicants must meet all legal and regulatory requirements. Reference the "Required Documents" section for additional requirements.
