

The Time is Now:

Begin Your Career of Service

SAVE THE DATE

What: Federal Hiring Event for People and Veterans with Disabilities
When: April 26, 2010
Where: Washington, D.C.

- Have you explored opportunities to work for the Federal government, but were overwhelmed by the application process?
- Do you want to work in an environment that embraces diversity and inclusion and the talent you offer?
- Are you interested in a career opportunity with benefits and the potential for career progression?
- Are you a Veteran with a disability who wants to extend your service to your Nation?

If so, now is the time for you to begin your career of service. The Office of Personnel Management (OPM) and the Department of Labor (DOL) is sponsoring a Federal Government Hiring Event.

BE READY

To help prospective candidates prepare for this invitation-only event, three webinars will be offered on:

- Why Work for the Federal Government?
- Preparing a Resume' for Federal Employment
- Obtaining Your Schedule A Documentation

Representatives from many agencies will be reviewing resumes prior to the event, and inviting prospective candidates for interviews.

For more information on the webinars please visit the USAJOBS website (www.usajobs.gov/hiringevents.asp) after March 8, 2010.
