

EDUCATING YOUR FUTURE VETERAN CAREER AND EDUCATION SYMPOSIUM

Sponsored by the Department of Labor and other Partners

Tuesday, April 30, 2013

12:30 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.

U.S. Department of Labor, Cesar Chavez Auditorium
200 Constitution Ave, NW
Washington, DC 20210

- Do you need certification courses to boost your career?
- Do you have credits but no official degree?
- Are you a veteran looking to use your veteran education benefits?
- Interested in learning more but not sure where to begin?

If you answered “YES” the Veteran’s Career and Education Symposium is for you!

The Department of Labor in conjunction with Excelsior College and other sponsors is proud to offer Military Veterans the opportunity to learn more about their education benefits and employment opportunities with the Federal government. The Career and Education Symposium will present information on how to use your benefits to help boost your career and enhance your education.

Symposium Highlights Include:

- Information on how and when to use your veteran’s education benefits
- Advice on enhancing your career through education
- How to obtain federal employment through the new Student Pathways Program
- Information on Veterans Preference and the Federal Hiring Process

Registration is FREE!

Register Here

Veteran Services

STEVENSON
UNIVERSITY

Imagine your future. Design your career.®

GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY